 est son who was born in 1866 helped his father in the vineyards and later worked for the Kelley Island Wine Co., becoming Superintendent by 1900. (The oldest son, Frank, founded the Monarch Wine Co.; see ERI-1618) Jacob married Mamie (aka Minnie) Dischinger, daughter of Frederick and Augusta Dischinger of Woodford Road, in 1888, bringing his wife to their new home. In 1900 they took as boarder quarry hostler, Peter Diffley. The 1910 Census shows Minnie, a widow, listed as boarding house keeper. Her son, Henry, age 21 was a locomotive engineer for the quarry, and son Albert, 18, a cook on a lake steamer. It is known that William Conkle, Superintendent of the Island Schools, also boarded with her c1910-15 before his marriage to Irma Dodge (ERI-1735). The present owner, Roy Erne, purchased the house from the Hauser estate in the 1930's. Roy is the son of Alphonse and Ida Erne (ERI-1589) and was born on Kelleys Island in 1910. Like his father before him he was a fisherman before his retirement, and operated from the north shore. His wife, Iva Riedy, also was island born, and is a descendant of Pauline Riedy (ERI-1557).
