

Presiding Commissioner, Kyle Carroll, East District Commissioner, Chet Owen and County Clerk, Melissa Meek. Absent West District Commissioner, Kyle White.

Presiding Commissioner, Kyle Carroll welcomed those in attendance and led all in prayer. The Pledge of Allegiance was then recited by all in attendance. Presiding Commissioner, Kyle Carroll made a motion to approve today's agenda and to approve the minutes from the October 21st meeting. East District Commissioner, Chet Owen made the second. All in favor. Motion carried 2-0.

Caitlyn Silver & Paul Hamby met with the Commission to discuss plans to celebrate the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 2026. Discussion was had about what kind of activities could be had, where to have them and the need for volunteers. They are in the early stages of planning for this event and welcome any ideas the public might have. A message from Governor Kehoe reads:

"The State of Missouri shares a critical piece in the story of America, from the Louisiana Purchase to our pivotal role in westward expansion. As we approach this monumental 250th anniversary, it is a perfect opportunity for us to reflect on our past, celebrate our present, and look forward to the future of our state and nation. We are excited to invite all Missourians to join us in this historic celebration."

Presiding Commissioner, Kyle Carroll & County Clerk, Melissa Meek signed the quarterly reimbursement for Assessor Tanya Zimmerman.

Road & Bridge Supervisor, Bill Gray met with the Commission to discuss work being done around the County, equipment and BRO-projects.

County Clerk, Melissa Meek reminded everyone that a Special Election will be held November 4th. There is only one issue on the ballot, and it pertains to the Senior Property Tax Credit.

If you have an event you would like to hold at The DeKalb County Fairgrounds please contact County Clerk, Melissa Meek to ensure there are no scheduling conflicts, and that you have the correct insurance in place.

The Commission always welcomes the citizens of DeKalb County to attend their weekly meetings.

Patrons who attended the Commissioner's meeting this week were Caitlyn Silver & Paul Hamby.

With further business before the County Commission, they adjourned until November 4, 2025.
