

Inez (Kreh) Vought

Inez Vought, 89, passed away Tuesday, July 18, 2006 at Encore Way in Naples, Fla.

She was born Sept. 16, 1916 near Pigeon, the daughter of Ezra and Tillie (Wing) Kreh. She graduated from Elkton High School class of 1935. After graduation

Inez moved to Flint and worked at AC (a division of General Motors). She married Arthur Dion in 1937. When Art returned from World War II, the couple moved to Alpena and opened Dion Hardware Store which they operated until Art's death in 1964.

Inez married Alger Vought in 1965. They later retired to Naples, Fla.

Inez enjoyed dog races, bingo and traveling. An avid sportswoman, she enjoyed fishing and deer hunting at her 360-acre hunting camp near Hubbard Lake until she was into her 80s.

Surviving are one sister, Beatrice Nichols of Clio and one brother, Harold of Portage; two step-daughters, Billie Ann (William) Fox of Tawas City and Betty (Wilbur) Wilke of Alpena; four step-grandchildren; many step-great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Preceding her in death were three sisters, Iva, Edna and Verna; and four brothers, Ervin, Oscar, Walter and Robert.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Saturday, July 22, 2006 at the Wachterhauser Funeral Home, 504 West Washington Ave., Alpena, with burial in Holy Cross Cemetery, Alpena.

Visitation is from 2 to 8 p.m. Friday and from 11 a.m. until the time of service Saturday.
