GLENN COUNTY FOOD RESOURCES DURING COVID-19

Glenn County is working to provide our community with adequate food resources. We look forward to providing and connecting as many people with these much needed resources. Please understand there may be delays and/or changes with our local food banks and other services as things are changing and evolving during this time.

CalFresh Benefits: Paper applications available at 127 E Walker St, Orland and 420 E Laurel St, Willows. PO Box 611, Willows, CA 95988. Drop boxes checked frequently. Phone 1(800)339-9236 or (530) 934-6514 | M-F 8AM-5PM | C4Yourself.com | Fax (530) 934-6521

Emergency CalFresh Allotments: There is no action needed on your part to be eligible. CalFresh households already receiving the maximum allowable allotment based on household size are not eligible to receive an emergency allotment of CalFresh benefits.

Pandemic EBT: California working on a program that will provide households with children that qualify for free-or-reduced school lunch a separate EBT with food benefits. (Counties will not be over this resource or able to assist)

Local School Districts: Multiple school districts in Glenn County are operating a meal program for students under the age of 18. Please see your school district website for more information.

Glenn County Senior Nutrition Program: For Home-bound seniors that need meal delivery services. (530) 865-1136

Orland Food Pantry: 19 Colusa St, Orland. Services have been changed due to COVID-19. For emergency food needs call (530) 865-4532 or email orlandpantry@yahoo.com to identify needs and make arrangements.
