General Rules

1. Each team must consist of at least one adult.
2. Contestants may participate in one or both categories (Main Dish or Dessert). However, only one item per category per team will be judged.
3. Use good fire safety practices.
4. Contestants must exercise care in the cleanliness of their food preparation and cooking. Keep the preparation area and utensils clean. Use a wash basin or wet wipes for hands. Use a cooler for perishables and do not put Dutch Oven lids on the ground.
5. Ingredients cannot be of a precooked nature (e.g. wieners and spam). All entry ingredients must be prepared on site. No pre-mixing or preparation off site of any ingredient.
6. Participating teams are expected to provide their own Dutch Ovens, utensils, recipe, ingredients, charcoal or other heat source.
7. All ingredients must be cooked in Dutch Oven or on Dutch Oven lids. Melting or warming a sauce over the coals, in a separate pot (not a Dutch Oven), is permitted.
8. Contestants must present their completed dish and recipe to judges at 5:30pm at the Entertainment Tent. Dish to be judged will be brought to the judges table in a Dutch Oven or on a Dutch Oven lid. Recipes should be typed or printed plainly on an 8 1/2" x 11" paper and must include all ingredients and preparation instructions. Outside the realm of copyright, the recipes become the property of A Country Farm for subsequent publication or publicity.

Contestants will be judged on entry appearance, taste, overall appeal, spectator and judges interaction, cleanliness, and Dutch Oven cooking technique.
