

Bob McLaughlin
COL, U.S. Army Retired

Chief Operating Officer, Mount Carmel Center of Excellence
Colorado Springs, CO

Pikes Peak Chapter, Association of the United States Army
Government Affairs Ambassador

Former Commander, U.S. Army Garrison, Fort Carson, CO. Currently Chief Operating Officer (COO) of Mt Carmel Center of Excellence of Colorado with a mission to support troops in transition and veterans and their families with wellness programs.

Visionary military executive that can make any organization more competitive – increasing value/return on investment and decreasing costs. Over 28 years of direct leadership/management experience in high performing organizations. Has positively led, directly and indirectly, Soldiers and Department of the Army Civilian formations of up to 5,000 people.

The Mt. Carmel Team collaborates with key community partners using best practices in wellness programs and transitional services focused on veterans, military and their families. In addition, the facility is a BEACON OF SUPPORT for profit and non-profit organizations focused on wellness and transitional services by synchronizing efforts and synergizing processes. Through our efforts those who have served and their families can continue to live healthy and productive lives.