A musical celebration at StoneGate

The Sounds of Indiana barbershop chorus presented "Sounds of the Season" Dec. 20 at StoneGate Center.

Narrated by emcee Don Jones, the harmonic chorus performed holiday favorites such as "Silver Bells," "Winter Wonderland," "White Christmas," "Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas" and "Christmas Time is Here" from "A Charlie Brown Christmas."

Jordan River Crossing, a group within the chorus, presented three selections, including "Baby, It's Cold Outside," featuring mezzo-soprano Amber McKoy, a doctoral candidate at Indiana University's Jacobs School of Music. A second break-out group within the larger chorus, Mr. Scott's High School Quartet, presented "Break Forth, O Beauteous Heavenly Light."

Directed by Joe Grimme and Daniel Lentz, The Sounds of Indiana is a member of the Cardinal District of the Barber-shop Harmony Society.

For more information about the group, contact Andy Fak at soundsofindiana@gmail.com.
