

MANAGER'S DESK FOR MONDAY, DECEMBER 16, 2019

WELCOME TO THE MANAGER'S DESK, I'M MIKE CORNELL.

I'M CONTINUING TO SHARE DEVOTIONAL THOUGHTS BASED ON FAMILIAR CHRISTMAS SONGS AS FOUND ON THE WEBSITE, BIBLE.COM. TODAY...

O Holy Night

*Fall on your knees, O hear the angel voices!
O night divine, O night when Christ was born!*

In the midst of so much imperfection, the night Christ was born can be considered one of the most perfect nights ever in the history of mankind. God used difficult circumstances (travelling on a donkey with a very pregnant wife) and an uncomfortable location (not even a hotel room, but a barn with only a manger to sleep in) to bring His perfect and holy Son into the world. God could have easily made Jesus' birth triumphant, but He chose not to.

The way God brought His son into the world is much the same way He works within our lives. Oftentimes God takes the imperfections in our lives and uses them to perfect us. God loves to transform physical and emotional scars and use them to grow us into stronger people. He also desires us to take what we learned from our imperfections and help others who may be struggling with the same things.

Jesus was a light to reveal God to all the nations, and we can reflect that same light as well. Don't let your imperfections hold you back. Instead, allow God to use them to shape you into the person He designed you to be, which is a light in a dark world. Give God your weaknesses so that He can turn them into your greatest strengths.
