Mike Rolph started out hot and held on for a one shot win over Min and Mike J. If Min could've bogeyed one par 3 he could have won the day. Weather was perfect although a little windy. Water on every hole.

Course Forest Glen Back Hybrid (70.3 /135)
Weather Some Sun and Clouds 89

Forest Glen won this round. Hazards everywhere, forced carries and elephants buried in some greens and they were all lightning fast made for a tough day. Beautiful course - we probably should have played from the Forest tees - the back hybrid made most of the tee shots quite challenging. We all want to play it again ... next year. Thanks Min for hosting our winter getaway at LTs winter home.

Course Fox Hollow (White) (69.6 /124)
Weather Partly Sunny, 40's Windy, Gusts to 30mph

Fox Hollow played very long with wet fairways and constant wind...with gusts up to 35-40mph. After Jim Rinaldi threatened his putter with retirement, he made 2 long birdie putts (#11 & #14) which enabled him to win by 1 shot. We played as a fivesome in 4.5 hours...and played 25's (expanded version of 9's). Mike Jeffries and Frank Thiry cleaned up!
