Biography

Marcia Kay Schuette, 67, of Pigeon, passed away suddenly Saturday, March 1, 2025 in Saginaw. Marcia was born August 11, 1957 in Pigeon to the late Leroy and Marjorie (Burger) Gnagey of Bay Port. Marcia enjoyed helping on the family farm, especially bottle-feeding calves. She attended Bay Port Elementary, Pigeon Junior High and Laker High School. On September 8, 2007 she married Chris Schuette at Cross Lutheran Church in Pigeon. Together they lovingly restored their home on Maxwell Road. Marcia was known for her excellent taste, wonderful eye for spotting treasures and extraordinary knowledge of antiques. For many years she ran a successful eBay store and while her items traveled across the country, Marcia herself preferred to stay firmly rooted in Huron County, surrounded by her family, friends, and adored animals. No stray was ever turned away and she nursed many a lost cause back to health. She will be missed by many, but especially by her constant companion, Juju.
