

Minister

Cynthia Williams

Minister Cynthia Williams was born and raised in Shreveport, Louisiana. She accepted Jesus Christ at an early age; however it was not until the 1993 that she came into the true knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

She is married to Darryl Williams they are the proud parents of two children DeMarco (deceased) and Valencia. They are blessed with two granddaughter Anaiyah and Da'leja. She attended Green Oaks High School, Southern University (Shreveport), and University of Phoenix. She has an Associate Degree in Business Administration, and a Bachelor Degree in Human Resources. She is an author of the book entitled "This is Crazy"

She is a faithful member of The Kingdom Family Church, in Dallas, Texas where she serves as an Elder under the leadership of Pastors Drs. Reginald and Stephanie Mauldin-Shankle. She is a minister, teacher, speaker, conference host and one who seeks to make a change in the lives of people by using her life as an example for the Kingdom of God. She enjoys seeing the blessings of God overtake others.

She is a businesswoman, a licensed Realtor. She is the founder and CEO of Women Empowering Women for the Next Generation (WEW, INC.) Ministries. This ministry operates by FAITH. Empowering to empower another by meeting the need, in order to change lives with the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Cynthia is the recipient of the Joyce M. Jones Community Service Award to name a few.

Cynthia is guided by Philippians 4:13, I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

