

Vocabulary Worksheet

Due 10/3/19

Match the definitions on the second page to the words, placing the appropriate letter in the space provided.

____ 1. naked

____ 2. ne exeat

____ 3. negotiability

____ 4. nisi

____ 5. noblesse oblige

____ 6. nolle prosequi

____ 7. nominal

____ 8. non obstante veredicto

____ 9. non prosequitur

____ 10. non sequitur

____ 11. nota bene

____ 12. novation

____ 13. nudum pactum

____ 14. nugatory

____ 15. nunc pro tunc

- A. invalid; ineffectual
- B. note well
- C. notwithstanding the verdict; reverses the determination of the jury
- D. nobility or rank imposes obligation
- E. a writ which is issued to restrain a person from leaving the jurisdiction of the court
- F. a nude contract; one made without any consideration
- G. existing in name only; unimportant
- H. that quality of negotiable instruments by which a transferor may convey to an innocent transferee a better title than he has himself
- I. it does not follow; a fallacious or illogical conclusion
- J. unless; indicates that the adjudication spoken of is valid and operative unless the party affected by it appears and shows cause against it
- K. he does not follow up or pursue; a defendant may get a judgment against a plaintiff who does not take the steps he ought to take in pursuing his action
- L. now and for then; with retroactive effect; applies to acts allowed to be done after they should have been done and which will have retroactive effect
- M. an ending of a criminal case (usually in federal court) because the prosecutor declares that he will proceed no further
- N. one without consideration and therefore void
- O. a substitution of a new debt, obligation, or contract for an existing one by mutual agreement among the contracting parties.