Pastoral Reflection

Epiphany Sunday! In many cultures this Feast is more important than Christmas Day, celebrated with feasting and an exchange of gifts. In Italy the good witch Befana arrives today on her broom with treats and presents for the children. For Orthodox Christians, Epiphany is especially important and includes blessings of large bodies of water highlighting the Baptism of Jesus and our own baptism. For our culture, it is often an afterthought, if celebrated at all. The commercial part of Christmas is long over with stores and shops already directed to Valentines Day, and even Easter. But for Catholics we are still celebrating Christmas with the recognition that this season is more than just the birth of Jesus, it's also about his manifestation as the Messiah and Lord to the Wise Men, and next Sunday to his fellow Jews at his Baptism. May the Spirit of Christmas be in your heart today and throughout the year.

St. Benedict's Shelter Annual 2025 Bed Sponsorship Campaign

Celebrating 20 years of service to the Owensboro community. To mark this milestone, the shelter invites local residents, churches, and businesses to sponsor a bed for $500—a direct investment in someone's journey from crisis to stability. Your Sponsor support helps expand life-changing programs, enhance case management and support services, create pathways to self-sufficiency and long-term housing. Sponsors will be honored with their name—or the name of a loved one—engraved on a commemorative plaque inside the shelter, symbolizing hope and second chances.

How to Give:

Donors can mail a check to 1001 West 7th Street, Owensboro, KY 42301 or visit www.stbenedictsshelter.org to contribute. Every gift helps launch the shelter's next chapter with renewed strength and purpose.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

Isaiah 60:1–6 The glory of the Lord shines on all people.

Psalms 72 “Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.”

Ephesians 3:2–3a, 5–6 The Gentiles are coheirs of the promise.

Matthew 2:1–12 The magi come with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Jesus, the light of the world, draws foreigners from all over the earth to bring gifts and proclaim their reverence. Isaiah foresees the light from Jerusalem attracting people from faraway lands, bringing gifts and praising the LORD. Paul himself travels to distant regions, preaching the message that Jesus came to Jews and Gentiles alike. The magi come from the east to pay homage and offer treasures to the newborn king. As God’s word is proclaimed, may we show our reverence.
