

RICHARD E. CARR

1940 - 1993

Richard E. Carr, 53 of Sterling Heights, passed away Saturday, Nov. 20, while hunting in Huron County.

He was born March 12, 1940 in Brookfield Township, son of Charlotte McKee Carr and the late Clayton Carr. He was united in marriage to Nelligje Kross on June 11, 1965 in London, Ont., Canada. The couple made their home in Warren and later in Sterling Heights.

Mr. Carr was an avid hunter and fisherman. He was a member of the National Rifle Association, Sheet Metal Workers Union Local 80 and he attended the First Presbyterian Church of Utica.

He is survived by his wife, Nelligje; a son, Edward (Debona) of Royal Oak; a daughter, Jennifer, at home; one granddaughter; his mother, Charlotte, of Gagetown; one brother, William (Debra) of Sebawaing; four sisters, Donna Fehl and June Marie, both of Gagetown, Mrs. William (Verna) Linderman of Auburn Hills and Mrs. Frank (Sharon) Mitchell of Grayling and several aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were conducted on Wednesday, Nov. 24 at Little's Funeral Home in Cass City. The Rev. David Smith, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Cass City, officiated with interment in Elmwood Cemetery, Gagetown.