

Grand Canyon State Bernese Mountain Dog Club Awards Application Form

The purpose of GCSBMDC's annual awards is to honor members who, with their dogs, have earned significant achievements. It shall be effective as of January 1, 2018.

I. Qualifications for an award:

- A. The applicant must be a GCSBMDC member in good standing.
- B. The applicant must be the owner of the dog or a member of the immediate family or household of the owner.
- C. To receive the award plaque, the dog must have earned one of these titles: AKC Champion title, BMDCA draft title, AKC obedience title, AKC rally title, AKC agility title, AKC tracking title, AKC or AHBA herding dog title.

II. One free plaque will be awarded per dog. The plaque-eligible title must have been earned after March 31, 2018. Plaques are wooden and display an engraved GCSBMDC logo. A metal plate engraved with the dog's registered name, call name and breed will appear on the plaque. All metal title plates, including the initial plate, must be purchased by the member at a cost of $8.50 each.

III. After the applicant has qualified for the original plaque, in accordance with I-A through C above, the applicant may apply for title plates recognizing any individual titles. They will include title name and date earned. All non-AKC awards will have the awarding organization's initials appear before the title (example: BMDCA, NADAC, USDAA, ASCA). Purchase price of title plates is $8.50 each.

IV. Applications for all title awards must be accompanied by a copy of the title-awarding organization's certificate or Berner-Garde number. If you haven't received the certificate or Berner-Garde posting, a list of shows or tests in which the dog earned credits for the title must be provided. If you are applying for awards for multiple dogs, please use one application per dog. Additional award applications are available on our web site (gcsbmhc.org).
