August

President's Message

Well it's August, hope it is not as hot as July was. The picnic is almost here, Aug. 10. Please make sure to let Arlene know if you are coming and if you are bringing someone, she has to know how much food to buy. This is a free event.

Our last meeting had good attendance and we welcomed a new member Robert Strauss.

The club sent flowers to Paul Werner's Memorial service.

It appears no NJORTC club members will be attending the CTCI convention in Texas.

I hope most of you has had the chance to see the flyer for the Fall cruise. Mike P. has done a lot of work setting it up. I believe he will be looking for payments and confirmations at the picnic. It looks to be a great time.

Vice President's Message

The Summer is going way too fast! It has been rainy and very hot and humid. A lot of car cruise night have been cancelled due to weather. Plus almost every weekend it rains, so with that said , it has not been a good classic car season. Praying that August is better weather ☐ On a good note, September and October should be good. So like I always say let's get those cars out on the open road!!!

Praying Donna Jessie is feeling better after her surgery. As always are prayers are with you for a quick recovery. Hope all that had health issues lately are feeling better.

Looks like Mike Perrillo Tours is working on a great Fall Cruise, a boat ride up the Hudson.

Now to talk about the picnic! I asked Pat to send out a reminder to please let me know if you are attending or not attending the picnic. For those who answered, thank you. I am still waiting for a few more members to notify me. Finallyak@yahoo.com. Please any new members we would like to see you come. It is a fun day. It's a good day to meet our members, plenty of good food, desserts (including ice cream bars) and fun trivia games. So please contact me. Have to have a total of people coming so we can get right amount of food. As of now we have 46 people coming. Again, Finallyak@yahoo.com. PICNIC DATE, SUNDAY, AUGUST 10TH 9:00 AM FOR SET UP (COFFEE, DONUTS, BAGELS, CRUMB CAKE FOR BREAKFAST) 11:30 PM PICNIC STARTS, ENDS WHEN IT ENDS, RAIN OR SHINE. IT IS HELD AT SCHOOLEY'S MTN COUNTY PARK, GPS ADDRESS:91 EAST SPRINGTOWN ROAD, LONG VALLEY, NJ (DIRECTIONS TO PARK ATTACHED TO THIS NEWSLETTER).

TIPS FROM THE BIRD DOCTOR

“Ford-O-Matic Transmission “

Introduced in the early 1950s, parts of this transmission's basic design are still used in today's models. Written by: Jim O'Clair from April 2013 issue of Hemmings Motor News Ford's first automatic transmission, which appeared in its 1951 models, was referred to as the Ford-O-Matic. This basic unit was designed by Borg-Warner and would become the platform from which many later model automatic transmissions would evolve.

Developed as a three-speed automatic, the Ford-O-Matic used a cast-iron case and would normally be started in second gear. For this reason, you often see the Ford-O-Matic referred to as a two speed, although the only actual two-speed units were produced from 1959-'64, and they had aluminum cases.

A sprag was added to the planetary assembly in 1958 so that you could select whether to start out in first gear or second, and the Ford-O-Matic name was changed to Cruise-O-Matic. They were later upgraded to the FX and MX series Cruise-O-Matics, then the single FMX transmission, and eventually, they evolved into the overdrive AOD transmissions used in the 1980s and 1990s Ford cars and trucks.

The Ford-O-Matic was manufactured in three different case sizes. It was initially offered in both small case from 1951-'60 and medium-case from 1951-'68 (often referred to as the Merc-O-Matic); large-case versions were also used in 1958-'65 Lincolns.

The 1951-'60 three-speed models can be identified by an oval aluminum tag mounted on the left side of the transmission case just above the oil pan; 1961 and newer units have a tag on one of the oil pan bolts.

Transmission ID numbers were three digits long from 1951-'54 and started with "1P"; 1955 and newer Ford-O-Matic ID numbers were four letters and started with "P." The ID number will tell you if you have the small, 97/8-inch case or the medium, 107/32-inch Merc-O-Matic case.

Large-case units were 107/8 inches from 1958-'60 and 115/8 inches long from 1961 to 1965. They can be found in 1958 Edsel's; 1958-'60 Mercury's and Lincolns; 430 V-8 equipped Thunderbirds, and 1961-'65 Lincolns.

Some Fords listed here used the Merc-O-Matic medium case, but Mercury, Edsel and Lincoln interchanges are not shown with these Ford interchanges, because most transmissions Ford produced after 1956 were built based on each manufacturer's engine displacement and performance options.

Although some of these units are over 60 years old, several aftermarket transmission parts suppliers still stock repair pieces for the Ford-O-Matic. Check in the "Ford 1954 and Up Parts" section and FoMoCo listings in the "Interchangeable Parts" section.

FLASHBACK

The only problem in posing this picture was getting the two Fords to stand still.

Seven good reasons for two FORDS

To free their family from one-car captivity the Bremers got two Fords: a Country Sedan and a Thunderbird—the car that inspired the styling and performance of all '56 Fords.

“We saw the need for a second car even before our first youngster arrived. If you’re married you know why. The five children just made two Fords more necessary. I need a car for business. My wife needs one for ferrying the family.

“Why are they Fords? In the first place, you can’t beat Ford’s looks at twice the price. You get extra zip in a Ford V-8, too. That’s why it’s the world’s best seller! It’s a good investment, too. Nothing at the price keeps its value like a Ford. And, of course, you don’t need children to appreciate the extra safety of Ford Lifeguard Design,” says Mr. Bremer.

SEE YOUR LOCAL FORD DEALER

The Country Sedan, one of six Ford do-it-alls, has 4-doors, lots of room. And its 292-h.p. V-8 is the most powerful standard “8” in its field.

The Ford Thunderbird inspired the styling for all Fords. And you can have its own 225-h.p. Special V-8 in most of them.

U. S. Coast Guard Day 4th; Nat'l S'mores Day 10th; Nat'l Watermelon Day 3rd; Nat'l Picnic Month and Nat'l Peach month. And to top it all off, Nat'l Marshmallow Toasting Day 30th.
