

Tell Me About It!

Rachael Martin 8,9,2016

How often, when we are talking with someone, does one person say something that we can totally relate to and we say “tell me about it!”? I believe what we are saying when we say this is “wow - I’ve been there and done that.... Or - no kidding, or yep – I totally get it and understand!”

I was catching up on the phone with a friend last night and there were so many things that we both related to and I was thinking about this when I started writing – of how often I have felt the Lord drawing me to tell Him about it....

I know there are times for everything – there is a season for everything. There will be times where we run to God about anything happening in our lives and then there will be times when we find ourselves caught up in life that when we finally get a moment with the Lord we feel like it’s going to take too long to catch up so we abbreviate and we try to wrap it up thinking we don’t have time to tell Him everything right now...

Friends – let me encourage you – He already knows it all!! You don’t ever have to play “CATCH UP” with God – of course He is always ready for us to tell Him all about it – and He longs to relate with us in our best and worst times! When we start to tell Him about things we show Him that we trust Him and we take our relationship with the Father to yet another place – He is full of wonder and He rests in places we have yet to understand or know exist!

Tell us about it Lord – help us to relate with You and Your purposes for us.

Like Gina’s word yesterday His eyes are always on us.

We take a moment and tell You Lord how great You are – how we love You and how much we long to discover the new things You have for us today. We wanna tell you all about it!
