

Dove, Mary A.

Mary A. Dove, 93, of St. Clair Shores and formerly of Caseville, died Thursday afternoon, April 21, 2005, at Blueridge Care Home in Jackson. She was born February 5, 1912 in Simsbury, Connecticut, and moved to Caseville with her parents, the late John and Antonette (Salmonvich) Scepanski in 1919. She had been employed at the Heasty Hotel in Pigeon for a time before moving to the Detroit area. There she met Vince Montreuil. They were married on June 20, 1931 at St. Francis Borgia Catholic Church in Pigeon. They continued to live in the Detroit area, where she operated Mae's Beauty Shop until 1964, when they returned to Caseville. She opened a shop there for a time before retiring. Vince died on July 29, 1970. On December 4, 1971, she was united in marriage to Frank Dove at St. Roch Catholic Church in Caseville and moved to St. Clair Shores. She was a past member of St. Roch Catholic Church in Caseville and St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church in St. Clair Shores. She is survived by two brothers, Tony and Frank Scepanski, of Caseville; a sister, Julie Wyman, of Florida; two step-daughters, Lois Matheson, of Iowa, and Vivian Apmadoc, of Arizona; adopted daughter, Margaret Hall; her brother-in-law, Lloyd Montreuil; two special nieces, Nancy Willenberg, and JoAnn Embury; and several nieces and nephews. Preceding her in death were two sisters, Anne Mary Kincel (her twin) and Phyllis Cormendy. There will be a funeral Mass celebrated at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, April 27, 2005, at St. Roch Catholic Church in Caseville with the Rev. Kenneth Yaroch, pastor, presiding. Burial will be in the church cemetery. Visitation will be from 4 to 8 p.m. on Tuesday at the Champagne Funeral Chapel in Caseville, with a rosary prayer at 7 p.m. There also will be visitation from 10 a.m. until the start of the Mass on Wednesday at the church. Memorials may be given to St. Roch Catholic Church. Condolences may be shared online at www.cfcCaseville.com.
