

Klaver Consulting Associates

Active Shooter / Workplace Violence Organization Checklist

- Your organization is committed to preparing for, responding to, and recovering from an active shooter / workplace violence incident in a coordinated manner (internally and with other organizations).
- Members of your organization have discussed and planned for their coordinated roles in the event of an incident.
- Your organization has conducted a risk assessment to evaluate weaknesses and vulnerabilities for your facilities and locations.
- You have trained for and practiced possible responses and reactions to an incident.
- You have adequate resources and supplies to prepare for, respond to and recover from an incident.

Visit www.klaverconsultingassociates.com for more information

