

AN ORDINANCE REPEALING THAT PORTION OF THE VILLAGE OF INNSBROOK SALES TAX THAT RELATES TO RESIDENTIAL, COMMERCIAL, AND INDUSTRIAL UTILITIES EMBRACED IN SECTION 144.010 (9)(b)(c)(d) RSMO AS AMENDED

WHEREAS, at the Special Election for the Village of Innsbrook on November 3, 1998 the registered voters may pass a proposition that would impose a .7% sales tax on all tangible personal property or taxable services at retail in the Village, and

WHEREAS, the proposition includes the following phrase - "and on residential utilities." and

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees are concerned that there should never be a utility sales tax without a separate majority vote of the residents on that issue.;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE OF INNSBROOK AS FOLLOWS:

Section One.

The sales tax on commercial, industrial, and residential utilities is hereby repealed, if the Proposition no. 2 passes on November 3, 1998.

AS SET FORTH IN SECTION 144.010 (9)(b)(c)(d) RSMO AS AMENDED

Section Two.

That the Board of Trustees must allow the registered voters of the village to pass a separate proposition in order to impose a sales tax on residential, commercial, and industrial utilities.

Section Three

That all of the other provisions of Ordinance 17 shall remain in full force and effect.

Section Four.

This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect both from and after its passage and approval, subject to Proposition No. 2 passing on November 3, 1998.

This Bill was passed and approved this 3 day of November, 1998, by the Board of Trustees of the Village of Innsbrook after having been read by title or in full two times prior to passage.
