

YOUTH LEADERSHIP CORPS (YLC) 2019

LOCATION: The Center for Hope and Healing Inc.
(21 George St, Suite 400, Lowell MA 01852)

STIPEND: $150

HOURS/DATES: January – June, every Thursday, 3:30 – 5:00pm.

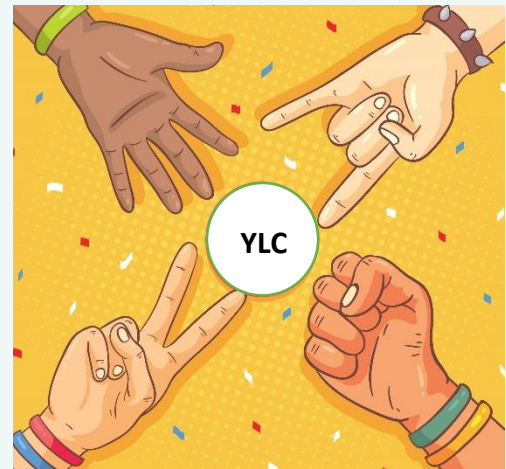

What is the Youth Leadership Corps program?

Youth Leadership Corps (YLC) is a group where youth develop leadership skills to become agents for change and activists in their community. Youth ages 17-24 will learn about and work with The Center for Hope and Healing to create projects and educate their community on issues of violence and oppression.

Members will learn about related topics, such as oppression, gender and sexuality, healthy relationships and more. Skills like public speaking, community activism, outreach, teamwork, communication, leadership and college research can be built while earning a stipend.*

What do I do?

- Attending weekly YLC meetings.
- Attending outreach events and activities such as CHH Take Back the Night and Teen Dating Violence.
- Building awareness of sexual violence through community outreach and projects.
- Completing surveys and participating in focus groups for evaluation.
- Sharing YLC experiences in their community or school.

Who gets selected?

Unfortunately, we cannot choose everyone who applies. We will interview and select youth who:

- Are ages 17-24 (or will be by Jan 1st, 2019).
- Have an interest in developing awareness around sexual violence and other social justice issues.
- Want to develop their skills in leadership, advocacy, and social change.
- Demonstrate a capacity to work on a team of diverse and open-minded individuals.
- Have a sense of humor!

Why join YLC?

- Build leadership and community building skills
- Build career and leadership portfolio
- Meet other youth who are passionate in social justice
- Get paid while learning and developing leadership skills!
