

Douglas Leo "Country Boy" Walsh
(November 24, 1942 - May 29, 2011)

Douglas Leo "Country Boy" Walsh, 68, of Flushing, died Sunday, May 29, 2011 at his residence.

Douglas was born in Sanilac County on Nov. 24, 1942, the son of Leo and Rita Walsh.

He was employed as a semi truck driver with Central Transport and was a member of the teamsters, Local No. 332 for 30 years. Douglas played karaoke and disc jockeyed at weddings and loved singing at clubs.

Surviving are: a son, Presley Lee Walsh; daughters, Tanya (David) Rajewski, Dawn (Keith) Swann, Angel (Andrew) Douglass; brothers, Dale (Peggy) Walsh and Gordon (Anna) Walsh, Rod (Marilyn); a sister, Sharon (Charles) Franzel; his mother, Rita Walsh; and grandchildren, Josh, Jordan, Zachary, Chelsea, Haley, Andrew, Aiden and Savanna; many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Barbara "Barbie Doll"; his father Leo; and a grandson, Ashton.

Funeral services were conducted on June 2, 2011. Burial was in Evergreen Cemetery.