Site Plan Reminders: Site plans are required for landscaping projects. The covenants required that no trees, bushes, shrubs or plants which at maturity and without clipping or pruning thereof, would exceed the height of the dwelling house on any lot shall be planted or emplaced until the plans and specifications for the placement of any such trees, bushes, shrubs or plants have been submitted to and approved by the Environmental Control Committee as to the preservation of the natural view and aesthetic beauty which each Lot and the community is intended to enjoy. Plans as submitted shall show in detail and to scale the proposed elevations and location of said trees, bushes, shrubs and plants, including the same in relation to all other Lots subject to these restrictions. Approval of landscaping plans may be withheld if in the opinion of the Committee, the view of any Lot would be impeded by the location of such tree, bush, shrub or plant. You can obtain a site plan application at the clubhouse or on our website:

DID YOU KNOW? It is the home owner's responsibility to keep their driveway and sidewalk clean. While the county will repair cracks, it is the homeowner's responsibility to keep it clean. Please check the sidewalk in front of your house to see if your sidewalk needs to be cleaned.

OAK HOLLOW
NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH
GROUP

Our seasonal residents will soon begin to return to our Oak Hollow Community. This will increase the activity in our neighborhoods and make it important that we know those who belong and watchful of those who may not belong. Be an observant neighbor. Be the eyes and ears of our neighborhoods. With the help of all residents we can maintain the safe community we all desire.
Remember, during your daily activities, watch/listen for:

- Suspicious activity
- Strange cars in the neighborhood
- Things that seem out of place or out of the ordinary

These should be reported to:
CCSO Non-Emergency: 941-639-0013
Emergencies only “911”

For information regarding the neighborhood watch group call: Tom Jenkins: 941-623-4966 or Bill Privee: 941-625-2030
