

Stickney, George Culver

George Culver Stickney, 94, of Rapson went home to be with his Heavenly Father Thursday afternoon, Aug. 30, 2007 at the Durand Senior Care and Rehab Center.

George was born Oct. 13, 1912 at the farm home in Rapson, to the late James and Mary (McFarland) Stickney. He had resided on the family farm for his entire life.

He married Edna Ross and together they shared 54 years together working side by side on the farm.

He was a member of the Bad Axe Church of the Nazarene for many years. He will be remembered for his humble and generous spirit, working tirelessly on the farm yet always taking time to visit with friends. He exhibited a servant like attitude in seeing if there was something he could do to meet the needs of others.

He is survived by his sister, Mabel Lehndorff of Lapeer; daughters, Darlene Stevenson and husband, Tim, of Swartz Creek, Linda Nyssen and husband, Dan, of Knoxville, Tenn.; grandchildren, Zachary Stevenson, Sheena Borrie, Adam Stevenson, Chad Nyssen and Andrew Nyssen. George leaves six great-grandchildren, Madison and Jacob of Swartz Creek, Miles and Chayse of Plaistow, N.H. and Lucas and Jason of Knoxville, Tenn.

A Celebration of Life service will be conducted at 11 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 4, 2007 at the funeral chapel of MacAlpine Funeral Home in Bad Axe with Pastor Kern officiating. Graveside services will be conducted at Verona Hills Cemetery.

Visitation will be held from 1 to 3 p.m. and 6 to 9 p.m. Monday and from 10 to 11 a.m. Tuesday in the funeral chapel. Published in the Huron Daily Tribune on 8/31/2007.
