 - There will be student art displayed inside the school and crafts for students to do outside
 - Individual teachers will be sending out more info on class performances
 - We will need volunteers to help decorate the stage in advance

School Supply Kits

- Our new company is Educational Products Inc (EPI) has sent a sample supply kit and promotional items.
- Sales will start April 15 and run to mid-June; parents can order from a website
- It's a fundraiser for the school

PTO Positions for 2018-2019

- President: Chantal Hause and Erin Rawitch are running together as co-presidents
- We need positions filled: VP Community, VP Communications, VP Fundraising, VP Volunteers, PTO Account Treasurer, Secretary, United Parents Council (UPC) rep

Teacher's Report: Ms. Brown

- Teachers would like to know which grade level sponsors their treats each month so they can thank them
- Ms. Brown showed an example of a product made from the 3D printer (garden plant signs in English and Spanish)

Principal's Report: Ms. Cameron

- Stars Program (drug resistance program for students): Nurse Wilder is looking into replacement programs because the officer who ran the program in the past is unable to continue due to a health issue.
 - Not MY Kid: offering a 45-minute peer-to-peer presentation; they have offered to provide the program for free this year with their grant money. We will accept this offer for this school year and look into another solution moving forward.
 - For next year: check with other schools in the district to see what they are doing.
- A reminder that ALL visitors MUST enter through the front office and sign in and wear a Visitor sticker while on campus; Ms. Cameron will send a letter to parents regarding this.
- Students can wear red on Wednesdays to support RedforEd.

Miscellaneous

- April 2 is the last day to buy a yearbook
