

Mary Jackson from the Roanoke Junior Service League draws the raffle winners as Chuck Smith, president of the Randolph County Animal Shelter holds the jar.

Book sales raise $7,000 for shelter

Fundraising chairwoman Evelyn Smith of the Randolph County Animal Shelter said, "We would like to thank all the folks in the county that supported our book sale and raffle, which was a huge success. We realize $6,996. Many animals will be taken care of because of your generosity."

She said the shelter also thanks Chris Mitchum, who houses all of the books in his unique warehouse and makes it such a fun place to be in Roanoke, and the many volunteers who work shelving the books for several weeks before the sale. This includes volunteers from the Roanoke Junior Service League.

The raffle winners are Sherry Walker of Wadley, who won the $400 first prize; Chris Hardin of Wedowee who won the shotgun second prize; and Sylvia French of Wedowee, who won the HDX Kindle third prize.
