Saigon / Pleiku 1968-69

In May 1968, a car bomb was set off at the Vietnamese TV station which was right next to AFVN Saigon. There was some damage to AFVN but it was minimal compared to this.

Obviously Johnny Grant.

A couple of days before they went up country, Johnny Grant, Vicki Lawrence, Melody Patterson and Karen McKorey came to the Saigon station to do some promo work. Needless to say, just about everyone was excited. They next day, Lou was on his way to Pleiku and the three girls, Johnny Grant and a bevy of PAO officers got on the same C-130.

Lou had seen Johnny Grant and his girls in Saigon, then on his first morning on Dragon Mountain here they come again. They spent quite a while on the mountain before departing for a tour of the 4th Infantry Division.

Vicki Lawrence was great. Here she is doing a little skit in front of one of the AFVN Pleiku bunkers.
