

MAGGIE MCGOWAN

Company Co-Director • Company Choreographer
Instructor

Maggie has been dancing since the age of three, where she began her training at Dance Unlimited in Simi Valley, CA. She has trained in all styles of dance including ballet, pointe, jazz, tap, hip hop, lyrical, contemporary, and modern. She danced competitively with the studio for many years and was also part of the dance team and hip hop team at Santa Susana Performing Arts High School.

After high school Maggie continued her training at Moorpark College, where she was a part of numerous productions as well as a member of the touring ensemble. She received a merit award in ballet, the Tane Memorial Scholarship, and her AA in dance before transferring to University of California Santa Barbara. At UCSB she performed in many productions, and choreographed many pieces as well. She graduated with high honors and a BA in dance in 2014.

Maggie currently teaches a variety of classes at Aspire, and is a co-director and choreographer for the Aspire Dance Company. Her choreography has won multiple regional and national awards! Maggie is also the head coach and choreographer for the La Reina High School Varsity Dance Team.

Maggie loves teaching at Aspire Dance Studio and enjoys being a part of this wonderful dance family!
