ONE SOUL AT A TIME

Thanksgiving in America Not Pagan, But a Truly Christian Holiday

The original foundation of the United States government remains anchored to a Judao-Christian document called The Constitution with its Bill Of Rights. Over 2 million Americans have lost their lives, limbs or became POWs in wars to uphold this document. Unfortunately, it seems that even though God promises us HIS rewards for our nation, based on our obedience to Him, America seeks Satan's pleasures which have subtly been introduced to us by false Gods from foreign nations.

The practice of Christmas is a Pagan (Catholic) ritual surnamed "the Mass of Christ" that attributes Christian deities to Pagan gods. Likewise Easter is a Pagan holiday attributing the Death of Christ to a Pagan high day. Halloween is blatantly a Satanic High Day and other abominations have our nation given a day of respect to including Gay Pride. But there remains yet one major American holiday that is still Christian: Thanksgiving.

Thanks was given by the Pilgrims to God for their success at making peace with the Native American

The Pilgrims' Mayflower

Indians and establishing a foundation for the colonies. These colonies were intended by the Baptists on the Mayflower to be a place of refuge from Christian persecution in Europe and all over the world.

Today the symbol of that freedom has been forged in steel in our Statue of Liberty. Thanksgiving was adopted by the government to be a federal holiday in October of 1863, and it remains one of the only purely Christian holidays in America. As a nation, we can thank God for our religious and other freedoms and God's blessings. ■
