Biography

Celebrating the life of Mrs. Janice Mae Herron, loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend. Jan, formerly of Marlette, retired on the lake of Oak Beach area. Janice Mae Herron passed away Tuesday, December 22, 2021 after she had taken a fall in November. Daughter of William and Virginia Gierman, Janice was born August 18, 1941 in Cass City, Michigan and she was a graduate of Marlette High School with the class of 1959. Jan married the love of her life, Edward Gordon Herron on May 21, 1960. Originator of Beagio's Pizza, J & S Catering and Wig Um House & Beauty Salon, Jan was always hard at work. She was also a member of the Lamotte Missionary Church and a devoted member of the FOE 3690 Women's Auxiliary of Caseville, "Queen Mother" of the Caseville Red Hat Hippers and The Croswell OES 236. Above all, Jan was a friend of all. Wonderful wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and was loved by everyone she knew. She loved tending to her flowers, watching sunsets at the lake, making delicious homemade wine, shopping, baking, spending time with family and friends, dressing to the nines, as well as decorating. The more "razzel-dazzel", the happier she was!
