

RUPPERT & SCHAEFER, P.C.

EXPERIENCED FAMILY LAW ADVOCATES

Ruppert & Schaefer, P.C. is devoted solely to dissolution of marriage and other family law matters. Strong advocates for their clients' rights, these experienced attorneys are passionately committed to helping people meet and overcome the challenges of divorce.

The firm has more than 60 combined years of family law experience, and every client gets the benefit of that collective experience. Even the firm's youngest attorneys have access to the wealth of information and expertise accrued in those 60 years, allowing the firm to provide exceptional yet cost-effective legal services to every client.

At Ruppert & Schaefer, the attorneys listen carefully to their clients' needs, concerns and hopes for the future. They handle the full range of family law matters, with deep experience in the distribution of marital property, including complex and large marital estates. Offering plain talk and straightforward explanations, the attorneys work closely with clients to craft personalized solutions tailored to each unique family law problem.

Partners Michael Ruppert and Paula Schaefer have earned a reputation for excellence in the practice of family law. Both have been certified by the Family Law Certification Board as family law specialists. This year, Ruppert and Schaefer are again named on the Super Lawyers list, and Lainie Hurwitz appears on the Rising Stars list.
