

Megan Greenlee Potts
Artistic Director

Megan Potts has been involved in all aspects of theatre since childhood. She has utilized her Ithaca College Bachelor of Fine Art degree in Technical Theatre, Design, & Production as a professional stage manager, production manager, properties mistress, lighting designer, theatre master electrician, sound designer and engineer, box office manager, house manager, actress, teacher, and director. She has taught the craft of theater to children ages 5+ and adults for over 39 years – drama, voice, mime, choreography, set construction, wardrobe and makeup, lighting, sound, and even stage combat. Currently Megan is the PAC Technical Advisor, Light & Sound Designer & Technician and the Assistant Librarian at the Albert Carlton Cashiers Community Library.

Youth Theatre

WHY DRAMA ?

Theatre Arts benefits both Students and Society, because students of Theatre Arts gain powerful tools for: *Understanding human experiences, both past and present. *Teamwork and collaboration. *Adapting to and respecting others' diverse ways of thinking, working, and expressing themselves. *Analyzing nonverbal communication.*Improving verbal communication. *Gaining Self-Esteem & Poise which crosses over into the classroom to support academic success, including STEM classes. *Studying a wide variety of literature, history, sociology, art, music & dance.
*Classes offered in TECH: Lights & Sound, Acting, Stage Combat
*Live via Satellite Series featuring the MET Opera & the National Theatre of London
*Intern Program

The PAC Youth Theatre Program is open to ALL area students and is FREE.

Dr. Ronnie Spilton, Founding Artistic Director
For more information please call: 828.526.9047