

Meeting People Where and How They Are

A RIVHSA Leadership Lunch & Learn Series

Sponsored by OneAmerica (SILVER SPONSOR)

There is no cost to attend

ABOUT THE SERIES

The Region IV Head Start Association has collaborated with OneAmerica to offer a virtual leadership series that addresses trending issues, is responsive to your voice, and is reflective of our joint commitment to improve grantee performance and support continuous quality improvement in program leadership.

Since the onset of the pandemic, OneAmerica has been provided a web series for its customers. Each event has a unique focus but all have been motivating, thought-provoking and incorporating elements of efficiency. From political leaders to hospital administrators to leadership coaches and authors, each featured speaker has chosen topics that deeply explore what they do best. The featured speakers not only have a story to tell but will share ideas, concepts, and processes to help us become better at what we do in a time when one idea can make a difference.

The live-sessions will also be available for on-demand viewing after the airing date.
The sessions are provided at no cost to grantees.

These sessions are ideal for the grantee's entire organizational team: Executive Director, Head Start Director, Fiscal Officer, Content Area Managers, Board and Policy Council Chairs/Members, as well as other key staff who hold a position of responsibility and accountability.

SERIES SCHEDULE

August 10, 2020 @ 12 p.m. EST

What to Do When There Is Too Much to Do

Presenter: Laura Stack

View On-Demand

Session Handout

When you're productive, you don't have to sacrifice your personal life to your career. How do you handle the constant struggle with time management and work-life balance? It's not uncommon for some leaders to spend 80 hours a week in the office or now at home working. If you can figure out how to be more efficient, more organized, and better focused, you can get greater results in less time. Laura Stack is an award-winning keynote speaker and bestselling author of eight books, Laura Stack is a noted expert in employee and team productivity. She is best known by her moniker, "The Productivity Pro®." Her engaging personality, combined with over 25 years of experience helping organizations achieve RESULTS, have made her one of the most sought-after experts and keynote speakers in her field.

August 19, 2020 @ 12 p.m. EST

How to Transfer Survival and Advancement Techniques to the Professional World: A Conversation with One of the World's Most Fearless Outdoorsman

Presenter: Ash Dyke

Register Now

Have you ever wondered what it would be like to walk over 4,000 miles in one year as you follow the length of the Yangtze River in China (the longest river in the world to flow through a single country)? Have you wondered what life lessons you might learn from such a journey? Listening to award winning adventurer, Ash Dykes, will allow you to put yourself in that same situation and to learn the same lessons without the possibility of facing crocodile infested rivers, contracting Malaria, or being followed by a pack of wolves. He brings to life the concepts of breaking down your goals, self-motivation and discipline and lessons learned in extreme conditions – all of which can all be used in everyday life. Ash does an incredible job of illustrating how transferable the techniques of survival and advancement – shift, adapt, and adjust - are to the professional world.