

Did you know there is a Policewomen's Lunch Group?

There is and they recently had a meeting at district 3 to discuss future plans.

They meet during the 3rd week of each month and will send out the 1st lunch notice the 1st week of each month so people can prioritize if they want to come. They will send out the reminder email approximately 1 week before the lunch to get last minute RSVPs. They meet at restaurants all over the metro area. They are also planning on adding some extra activities (Museums, DCPA shows, etc). Several current members are willing to provide carpooling, as needed, to aid those who need transportation in order to attend.

MEMBERS - The group will be open to retired officers, widows of officers, retired DPD civilian women, and civilian women who volunteer or work with the dept. or the retiree organizations.

If anyone has any questions, or would like to receive emails, please feel free to reach out to Rosie Sapegin at rosie.sapegin@comcast.net, or Patty Jung at peppermintpattydenver@gmail.com
