

the whimsical will of men to be the norm of Moral Law. Men unfortunately do have the power to enforce their will upon others. They make what is momentarily convenient and socially acceptable into their moral criteria, ones that are far from the Law of God!

“The Chosen of God have a higher and truer Law: Yahweh’s! The Law of Right, unchangeable and universal Justice, is God’s foundation for morality. The Law of Love, resting on the foundation of justice and respect, is also unchangeable and universal. Without it there is no basis for or the development of of judging whether men’s consciences correlate with their deeds, and the light of His Spirit will expose the hidden attitudes of every vicious heart. Pretending to uphold the Law while breaking it, hypocrites will be judged by the very words they falsely proclaimed and openly abused. It is blasphemous to take God as one’s game-playing fool, nor may one use His Word or Name in vain to validate or promote unjust deeds! (Ga. 6:7)

“There is always One who sees the substance of one’s deeds and records the oaths guaranteed with His Name. It is Yahweh, mankind's Supreme Judge (Jb. 34:10-22). And it is He who alone
