HERE AND NOW

<sup>20</sup> Once Jesus<sup>[s]</sup> was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God was coming, and he answered, “The kingdom of God is not coming with things that can be observed, <sup>21</sup> nor will they say, ‘Look, here it is!’ or ‘There it is!’ For, in fact, the kingdom of God is among you.” Luke 17:20-21

Throughout the Gospels, Jesus often tells His disciples, “The Kingdom of God is near.” In Luke’s Gospel, this isn’t just a distant promise—it’s a declaration that God’s Kingdom is breaking into the world right now. It’s not just something we wait for; it’s something we are called to live in and live out, each and every day.

When we pray in the Lord’s Prayer, “Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven,” we are asking God to make His presence and purpose real in our world. We long for heaven’s peace, justice, love, and truth to shape our lives here on earth. And that begins now.

We have entered the long, green season after Pentecost—a time the church sets aside for growth, renewal, and reflection. The green paraments on our altar remind us that this is a season of spiritual flourishing. Even in the quiet, ordinary weeks of summer and early fall, God is at work—planting seeds of faith, nourishing our spirits, and calling us to grow.

As part of this season of renewal, our search team is prayerfully seeking a new Director of Music. We are deeply grateful to Ryan Price, who continues to faithfully lead our musicians in both traditional and contemporary expressions of worship. We are thankful to the choir who are dedicated and lead us in worship each week. Thank you also to you: the congregation, who worship with open hearts, regardless of style—offering your voices, your presence, and your joy as an offering to God.

In all of this, we are reminded: we are living in the Kingdom of God today. God is not far off—He is here with us, moving among us, working through us. We serve a timeless God— “the same yesterday, today, and forever”—and we are invited to live fully in the present, while trusting in the hope of what’s still to come.

Let’s continue to worship, grow, and serve in this season. God is with us. The Kingdom is near. And that is good news for us all.

*Sister in Christ,
Pastor Gina*

There are eight Lutheran churches in our area currently without music directors.
- Treasurer: Budget Comparison Last Month for May 2025 and Designated Funds Last Month for May 2025 were submitted. Our income for the year is currently short of our expenses. We now owe only $45,500 on The Building on Holy Ground loan, and it should be paid in full in about nine months.
- Financial Secretary: Funds Report for May 2025 was submitted.
- Executive Committee: Executive Committee recommends that Ben Bernstein be awarded the Spring 2025 disbursement of the Stephen Price Scholarship in the amount of $700. PASSED unanimously.

- Pastor Gina: Report for July 2025 was submitted. Pastor Gina plans to broach the idea of reviving Lay School of Religion to her pastors' group. The Leadership Retreat will be January 9-11, 2026, at the Isle of Palms Retreat Center. The driver's training class was a success, and Jeff Jones has asked us to host this class 2-3 times a year with the next session likely occurring in September.
- Treasurer: 1c Designated Funds Last Month for June 2025 and 1b Budget Comparison Last Month for June 2025 were submitted. We had a good month and collected more than we spent, but we're still $8,000-$9,000 behind budget for the year. It was noted that we spend approximately 25% of our budget on outreach each year, with most of those funds going to our Food Pantry.

Hermon Bingo!

Blessing Of the Backpacks: Calling all students and educators! Bring your backpack or school bag to worship on Sunday, August 10th for our annual blessing of the backpacks. Our congregation will pray over these vessels to usher in God's love, protection, clarity, and grace as we embark on a new school year!

Have Mercy! During the month of August, Teach Team is collecting donations for MIRCI (Mental Illness Recovery Center, Inc.) To support their efforts in ministering to vulnerable and homeless adults in our community. Some of our congregation interacted with a vulnerable adult who sought refuge at Mt. Hermon for several days in June. MIRCI stepped in and helped us to connect this individual with transportation, shelter, and food/medical resources. As Matthew 25 reminds us, "I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me". If you would like to contribute to a love offering for MIRCI so they can continue these efforts, please note "MIRCI" on a collection plate or tithe offering in August. are making recommendations to the council in August for it's replacement. Meanwhile, the Worship Team is coordinating a Clean Out and Clean Up for all items on the stage. If you have any personal items stored on the stage, we ask that you remove them from the church grounds (don't put them somewhere else to store them). All items will be removed from the stage and placed in the Fellowship Hall beginning August 18th. All items remaining in the Fellowship Hall on August 28th will be hauled away.

Director of Music Search Team

The Team was commissioned during worship on July 13. Those serving on the team are Marion Leaphart, chair of Worship Team, Charlene Corley, chair of Personnel Team, Nancy Addison, Ann Addy, Fran Bouknight, Scottie Marsh, and Jerry Price.
