Biography

Eric Matthew Osentoski, 28, of Attica, MI, and formerly of Kokomo, IN, passed away peacefully in his sleep on Thursday April 1, 2021. He was born on April 11, 1992 in Flint, MI to Mark and Linda (Rogers) Osentoski. Eric was a student athlete and 2010 graduate of Northwestern High School in Kokomo, IN, and subsequently received his Bachelors of Science degree from Indiana University in 2015. His most recent career move was a sales supervisor position at Renewal by Anderson. Eric regularly attended St. Paul Lutheran Church in Lapeer, MI. Eric was an avid sports fan and enjoyed watching the NBA, the Indianapolis Colts, his beloved Indiana University Hoosiers and following the Detroit Tigers. He was also a fan of many daily ESPN shows, was a proven movie connoisseur and was known to binge on popular cable TV series. Eric was a huge advocate of Apple products, truly loved his iPhone and the social media engagement that went with it. Eric discovered the joy of cooking and made each dish spicier than the last. On the soft side, Eric loved animals, especially cats.
