

Milton, Ival

Ival America Milton, 89, a Romeo resident for more than 22 years and formerly of Bad Axe, passed away on Friday, April 9, 2004. Ival was born in Huntington, West Virginia on July 3, 1914, a daughter of the late John and Ada (King) Watts. She had been united in marriage to Troy Milton on August 15, 1938 in Gallipolis, Ohio. Troy preceded her in death in 1981. Ival is survived by two daughters, Shirley Guza, of Romeo, and Fran Satow and her husband, Allen, of Pottstown, Pennsylvania; her brother, Harvey Watts and his wife, Bev, of Livonia; seven grandchildren; and 11 great-grandchildren. Ival was preceded in death by her sister, Nancy Kuhn; two brothers, Haskell and Rex Watts. Funeral services will be at noon on Monday, April 12, 2004, at the Henry M. Malburg Funeral Home of Romeo with the Rev. Mark Evan, of St. John Lutheran Church, officiating. Cremation will follow.