

Eviction, No Notice

Rachael Martin 5,23,2016

In this world when people are evicted from places, there is usually a notice before the actual event.

I felt like the Lord wanted me to encourage us to stop letting the devil have notice. Sometimes, we walk around choosing not to ignite the power, energy, faith, and purpose that we have because we are sons and daughters of Almighty God! Why do we choose not to ignite it? I'm sure there are many reasons – and some of them might be really good... but stop it! Look up! That's where your help comes from.

Giving notice to the enemy is like telling a bank robber that you are going to arrest him in 3 days, um... I bet he's on the first flight to "never gonna find me land". It means you have let him in on the plan and he now knows when he can or cannot strike again.

The Bible says that the enemy waits for an opportune time. If we don't give him that opportune time, then we will see more victory over areas of weakness as we gain ground, gain strength, gain territory, and gain freedom. We can do these things through JESUS CHRIST WHO GIVES US STRENGTH!

Each day we have, we need to seize – take a hold of and claim victory over 1st thing.

I'm challenging each of us to wake up and pray the following or something similar as the Lord leads.

Thank You Father, for waking me up and giving me this day.

I officially, spiritually TAKE THIS DAY – in Jesus name.

I claim victory over every area that I need to be and/or be a part of today.

I will not allow the enemy to hang around and cause chaos, strife, distraction, temptation, or the like.

There will be no notice given, the enemy is evicted today in Jesus name.

Thank You Lord for the victory You have given me over today and all things concerning me and my family. I give You praise and call You Worthy for You have kept Your promises time and time again and You get the glory today and always. I claim victory over me, my family, my mind, and my soul today in Jesus name and declare order to come to my atmosphere right now. Thank You for today Lord – thank You for officially serving the spiritual eviction over the enemy in Jesus name, Amen.
