

SPECIAL EDUCATION TASKFORCE "Monthly Training"

And They're Off . . . Post-School Options for Young Adults Served by OPWDD

Widespread changes in both federal and state level policies are changing the landscape of life after high school for students who are eligible for OPWDD services and others. In this workshop, participants will learn about new and continuing options for housing, employment, rehabilitation and other programs for adults transitioning from high school, as well as an overview of eligibility guidelines. This workshop is a must for all parents and professionals who are supporting students and young-adults, age 15 and older.
