

City of Fremont - Hartford / Lennar Development Below Market Price Home (BMP Home) Lottery Application Overview and Instructions

Lottery Application Deadline: Friday, June 14, 2024 at 5:00 p.m.

This form is part of the Hartford BMP Home Lottery Application. Applicants must read the following instructions, provide the information requested, and sign the acknowledgment at the end of this instructions document. Signatures for this and other forms provided in this application package may either be typed or handwritten.

Applicants should direct questions they have regarding Lottery Application to BAAHA at info@myhomegateway.com. Do not contact the City of Fremont regarding the application process; you will be referred back to BAAHA. All communications with BAAHA are required to be conducted through email at info@myhomegateway.com.

The Bay Area Affordable Homeownership Alliance (BAAHA) is contracted to administer lottery application intake and screening for the newly constructed Hartford Below Market Price (BMP) homes located in the City of Fremont. BAAHA's administrative role and responsibilities will only include:

- Collect BMP Home lottery screening applications from interested households
- Conduct a screening review and underwrite to determine the applicant household's eligibility to participate in the Hartford BMP Home lottery
- Provide the City of Fremont a lottery eligibility determination for the applicant's status to participate in the Hartford BMP Home lottery
- Provide the City of Fremont with all documents related to the submission and underwriting of the Hartford BMP Home lottery application eligibility determination

A lottery eligibility determination provided by BAAHA only provides the applicant the capacity to participate in the Hartford BMP Homes lottery. The City of Fremont will underwrite Program Approvals for lottery winners who will be purchasing the Hartford BMP Home.

The Hartford BMP Home Lottery Application Package consists of the following forms. All the below listed forms must be filled out in their entirety, signed, and submitted. Do not separate the forms provided. Incomplete forms will cause the entire application to be rejected and not processed.:
