

Somewhere to Land

Well, I think I'm going crazy
I can't stand it any more
Passion's got me by the throat
Fantasy's of help no more
And, I've tried my best to fight it
But I'm weary of the war
And, I guess I'm only human
'Cause my soul is getting sore

I've had it up to here
With the only person that I see
And, it's lonesome on a one-way street
With no drugs to ease
This limited conversation
Just the television and me
So I've put off trying to face it
But somebody help me please

And, I wanted you know
And, I hope you'll understand
But, I'm so damn tired of circling
And I need some where to land

You will always be my continent
Like a home, I can never leave
But the islands are so inviting
Just a skip across the sea
We've weathered every storm so far
With calculated ease
And, with the tide, and wind, and the waves picking up
It's still only a breeze

I thought I was self-reliant
But I'm confused and lost control
And I need someone for a little while
I can't make it on my own
It's not your fault, I'm guilty
I plead it with a scream
And maybe it's just a nightmare
But I can't live with empty dreams

And, I wanted you know
And, I hope you'll understand
But, I'm so damn tired of circling
And I need some where to land
To refuel