George Lanthier, Instructor

Training on the current heating controls being installed & serviced today.

A seminar that focuses on Warm AIR Furnace controls operating today's HVAC systems. Covers both in-the-field and new controls entering the market. Features detailed information on troubleshooting Blower Control Boards (Timers) like Honeywell's ST9100 and S9200 Series. All required training materials are provided including our NEW Warm AIR Systems Handbook by the course instructor. The program is not fuel specific and is ideal for anyone involved in residential heating system service and installation. Includes hands-on and student must bring a MULTIMETER to participate. Seats are limited and sold only on a first-paid, first-seated basis and include lunch.
