

If you cannot view this email,
please Click Here to view an online version.

Unsubscribe/Update Profile | Share With Friends | Subscribe

Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education (LCLCE)

March 2015

ENEWSLETTER

Phone: 504.619.0134

Fax: 504.528.9154

www.lalce.org

Have a Lawyer or Judge Visit Your Students

Help make Law Day, or any day, a special event for your students and request an in-school presentation by a lawyer or a judge.

It's easy. Teachers - click here for a request form; Attorneys and judges - click here to download an attorneys/judges enrollment form.

Sponsored by

Lawyers/Judges in the Classroom Program, a Partnership of the La. State Bar Association, La. District Judges Association and the LCLCE.

Nominations Now Being Accepted for Civics in Action Award for Outstanding Civics Student

Help the LCLCE recognize a middle or high school student who exemplifies what it means to be an engaged citizen. Do you know a student who has made a difference or an improvement of the quality of life in their school, home or community through the use of civic engagement?

The nomination process is simple. Anyone can make a nomination.

Repeat nominations of students still in school are encouraged.

Deadline for submission is March 27, 2015. For more details and nomination form click here.

Seeking Law Day Presenter in St. Helena Parish

The Lawyers/Judges in the Classroom program is looking for a judge or attorney to make an in-class presentation at the high school level in St. Helena. If interested, please email Kandis.Showalter@LSBA.org

Justice Catherine D. Kimball Summer Institute

Dedicated to Training Teachers in Civic and Law Related Education

The LCLCE will be accepting applications for this year's four-day Summer Institute soon! The Summer Institute is a professional development program in law-related education for teachers 4-12. You will receive a notification by LCLCE ENewsletter when the applications will be accepted. This year's Institute will be held in New Orleans and is tentatively scheduled during the week of July 19, 2015. This will be a multi-topic program and will include Order in the Court, iCivics, We the People and more. There is no fee to attend. Enrollment is limited.

Suit Up for the Future

For young people interested in pursuing a career in the legal field...

The Louisiana State Bar Association, in partnership with the Just the Beginning Foundation and the Louisiana Bar Foundation, will host the 2015 Suit Up for the Future High School Internship Program this summer. Students entering the 11th or 12th grade in the fall of 2015, or entering their first year of college, should complete the online application by the April 13 deadline. For more details and a link to the online application form click here.

Haynes Academy for the Advanced Studies Wins We the People State Competition

The We the People team from Haynes Academy has earned the honor of representing Louisiana at the National We the People Competition to be held in Washington D.C. in April. Congratulations to teacher Chris Totaro and his students!

iCivics

Check out this innovative web-based civic education program targeting teachers and students with games and lessons designed to reinforce Louisiana's civics and government standards. iCivics is the vision of Justice Sandra O'Connor. For more information, visit the iCivics section on the LCLCE website.

Attorney Job Positions

The Louisiana State Bar Association has a current listing of job opportunities in the legal field. To view these opportunities click here.

company@company.com 555-555-5555 ©2014

601 St. Charles Avenue
New Orleans, LA 70130
United States