

Love Letters from Your Father

He will attempt to garner worldwide dominion over Christians! (Mt. 24:23-26)

He is slated to appear in the last days, and will teach Christian souls how to follow ways of vice under the guise of virtue. He will shepherd them away from Jesus and into the flock of Satan, articulating arguments to reverse the Word of God.

I say also, what other demon but Satan could induce certain leaders in our communities into becoming hireling anti-Christ? These false prophets militantly turn Christians onto paths directly opposed to Jesus' specific directives within the Christian communities.

Again, no one with a genuine spirit of Christ would ever encourage His flock to be so divided that they are fed in diverse pastures. Jesus never had a Spirit of division, but reunited to His Father both the chosen and unchosen, the saint and sinner of every nation and time. In fact, to divide the Lord's only Way, Truth, and Life into many radiating or almost parallel roads is a blasphemous detouring of Jesus' Only Road to God.

(Jn. 14:4,6)

Division presents Jesus' co-shepherds not as being solicitous upholders of His Faith but rather as being founders of factional "Christian" persuasions! This is directly opposed to anything Jesus ever taught. His shepherds were to be announcers of the Word as He gave It; and, no one — not even we Apostles — was ever given permission to reinvent His teachings even through "inspired" scholarly reinterpretations!

The Word of God is pure, holy, and infallibly true. Only the Word Jesus personally taught can be proper food for His sheep.
