

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Greetings to you all in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

“Go and proclaim the Gospel”.

I would like to give a brief introduction about my congregation namely “THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF HERALDS OF GOOD NEWS”. Heralds of Good News is a Missionary Society of Apostolic Life, started in Eluru diocese, India on 14th October 1984; it became an Institute of Pontifical Right on May 5, 1999. The specific aim of the Society is the promotion of vocations to priesthood, the training of seminarians and the supply of zealous and hardworking missionaries to the dioceses in India and abroad which experience a shortage of priests due to the lack of local vocations.

The Missionary Society of Heralds of Good News moves on by the power of the Holy Spirit which always indwells with her in the person of her founder, Very Rev. Dr. Jose Kaimlett, who founded this Missionary Congregation in 1984, when the time and world made their cry for dedicated, zealous, saintly and hardworking missionary priests. That was his mission statement, a mission about people, which became the constitution of Heralds of Good News primarily, and for the Sisters of Good News and Missionaries of Compassion he seeded in 1992 and 2003 respectively, as extension of his divinely guided vision. The Society of Heralds of Good News today, with the single minded devotion of every member is the solid expression of the vision and values of Very Rev. Dr. Jose Kaimlett.

For the better administration of the Society, it was divided into five Provinces, namely St. Paul Province, Mary Queen of Apostles Province, Mother Theresa Province, St. John Paul II Province and Divine mercy province today, each province functions independently, taking care of its members and bringing about new initiatives for the greater Glory of God and Salvation of souls.

Yes, dear friends in Christ we are all called to be a missionary. Let us become the Gospel for others.

May God Bless you all.

Fr.S.Vinner HGN.
