

RANDELL W. MARTIN, CPA, MBA

Principal Owner

BIOGRAPHY

Randell W. "Randy" Martin has been a CPA in Dallas since 1999.

He specializes resolving IRS tax issues, tax debt and audits for clients.

Randy represents clients and guides them through the complicated procedures and regulations of tax law, deciding which avenue is best for them, and negotiating the best deals for clients.

He is licensed to practice before the Internal Revenue Service—representing clients—in all 50 states.

Randell graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a degree in Business and a major in Accounting with honors, passed the Texas CPA exam on his first attempt obtaining a Texas license, and graduated with an MBA with high honors from Thunderbird, the American Graduate School of International Management.

He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants, and the American Society of Tax Problem Solvers.

Randy is a dynamic and knowledgeable speaker who offers a mix of information, personality, and humor in his presentations and interviews. His audiences enjoy him as much as he enjoys speaking. He is nationally recognized for his skills in solving tax problems, tax law, and tax strategies & tips.

Randy and his wife have four children and are regular members of the First Baptist Church Rockwall.
