Letter from the Baroness:

Greetings Windhaven

Autumn seems to have settled upon us once again. As usual at this time of year, we hurriedly attempt to get as many summer activities in as possible in the few remaining warm days. The last few crops are being harvested from our gardens as we watch for the first hard frost of the season. We also anticipate Crown Tournament in October, which insures the continuation of the reign of Northshield Kings & Queens.

A year ago, five generous members of this barony spent a day helping His Excellency and I cut, sand, and paint wood to create the beautiful, bright new list poles for our barony. This year, Lord Cristoffel is asking the Barony for a dozen more list poles for Fighters School in February. Since this is a dusty outside project, we need to get to work on this soon. Anyone free to put a few hours into cutting, sanding and painting for a few hours in the next few weeks should contact me or Lord Cristoffel.

Northshield Fall Crown Tournament is coming up in the Shire of Midewinde on October 10

His Excellency will be taking the train there.

Griffin Needle Challenge is being held in the Shire of Falcons Keep on October 23-24.

The Barony of Windhaven will be hosting the Stellar University of Northshield on November 4.

<http://www.baronyofwindhaven.org/upcoming-events.html> We strongly urge all in the barony to attend this day of classes on everything from sharpening chisels or making stav containers to hand-sewing, illumination, and basic games. There should be something for everyone at this event. There will also be many opportunities to help out by sitting at gate, guarding the royalty room, serving lunch, cleanup, and many other needs that come up. There will also be kingdom and baronial courts at this event. I look forward to seeing all of you there.

Along with these events, our Barony offers rapier practice on the 1st and 3rd Mondays in Appleton and most Thursdays at UW-Green Bay. Project Nights are every Wednesday at our house in New London – come make armor, work on heraldry, garb or some other project or just sit around and socialize.

Peace

Mearha
Baroness
