Letter from the Baroness:

Greetings Windhaven

Summer camping season has gone quickly and is two-thirds gone already. It's hard to believe. Camping with the members of Windhaven who joined our encampment at WW is always an opportunity to share laughter and stories with friends. His Excellency and I also enjoyed the opportunity to hear about your experiences of the day as we came back together in the evenings.

Windhaven held armored and rapier champion tournaments at its moot in July. We now have a new armored champion, Lord Edmund Campbell, and a new rapier champion, Lord Richard the Roma. Vivat to both of them. It was our pleasure to present a Seat in Tamarack's Hall to Jocoff Alfann and a Horicon's Favor to Richard the Roma in our baronial court, and to deliver a Griffin and Sword to Constantine McGavin for Their Majesties in a regency court.

His Excellency and I plan to attend Poor Man's Pennsic in the Shire of Falcons Keep and Pas de Armes in the Canton of Blachemere in August. We hope to see some of you in our travels.

Peace,
Mearha

Hear ye, hear ye. Windhaven is looking for a Herald to replace Lord Vasili who has stepped down. All those who would like to campaign for this position should attend the September business meeting where a vote will be held.
