Mysteries Revealed about Mary 2a of 7

September 20, 2018

Thank You, Lord Jesus, for taking the time to share these revelations about Your Mother. I am beginning to see that she was the first fruits of Believers and so many things you did for and with her are a model for us on Earth, including her amazing departure from Earth. Which I will share, by the way, Dear Ones, in number 7 of the series.

So, my dear Heartdwellers, some of you have been with me for almost five years, and I have always done my very best to be transparent before you. I withheld Mary the Mother of Jesus from you out of obedience, although my heart ached to tell you about her intercession, her friendship, her protection.

Speaking of which, the demons have always been allowed to interfere with Ezekiel and I in making music together. He is a wonderful guitarist and vocalist, but something would always pop up between us, just the littlest thing would really mess us up, and then we'd call it quits. With a bad taste in our mouths...

But two nights ago, for some inexplicable reason, we were able to work together seamlessly. And he felt such satisfaction, in contrast to 25 years of frustration. And hopefully I'll have that piece of music out for you tonight. And I want to thank you, Heartdwellers, for praying for my music. It helps a great deal.

I said inexplicably, but halfway through our recording session I caught a glance of Our Lady standing before my altar, smiling. She had come and covered us with her angels, the ones assigned to her. Yes, she had intervened and was protecting both of us from anything that could have spoiled our recording session.

I told Ezekiel, "Honey, Our Lady is here. She is standing before the altar." He didn't see her, but he thanked her. Because he knows that she's very present to him, so much of the time. He has a tremendous devotion to Mary because she has been such a wonderful friend to him.

And Mary did something so sweet, after I said that. She took two steps in my direction, put her motherly arm around me and said, "Thank you for telling him!" Aww. So sweet! She is very diminutive, certainly not an inch over five feet. So, she blessed us with a breakthrough.

She has also tamed that black panther I've been struggling with for 30 years. Just as I saw her on Lily Pad Island over a year ago or so, when Jesus took me there in the canoe. I got out and

Our Lady was there waiting for me. And she was sitting with the black panther resting by her side, all the viciousness was gone. And I took that to mean that she would help me overcome my black panther. You see what she can do when you ask for her prayers?

And I haven't had an attack of Lust for things in a very long time, certainly not distracted by them the way I used to be. I steer clear of temptations, which are occasions of sin.

I had just dedicated my music to her and put myself under her protection, and I asked her deliberately, 'Please pray for Ezekiel and I, and that we can work together.' And she accomplished in an hour what we've been praying to God to do for a good 20 years, without any success.

Yes, Ezekiel and I have worked together a very few times, very few... But I would say 75% of the time it ended in argument, or a misunderstanding and frustration That's before I gave it to her to oversee and help us. Good prayer warrior!

Well, I have digressed. What I am wanting to say to you, dear ones, is what kind of shepherd would I be, if I withheld Mary from you after Jesus told me to release the teachings? What--for losing half the Channel? Losing perhaps a livelihood and salaries for our helpers? I've been in poverty before, and I'll go back to poverty if I have to. But I'm not gonna compromise. For being accused before the Christian community again?

This time, in their eyes, there's no excuse. "She's a Mary worshipper! See she bows before statues and worships Mary!" And yes, I will kneel before a statue that represents a saint when I call on their intercession. And I thank them profusely for their prayers and even companionship.

But I will never worship a statue. Or a saint.

In order to come under the condemnation of the second commandment, "Thou shalt not make to thee any graven image. Thou shalt have no other gods before me." A graven image is by definition, "a carved image used as an idol." Seems like Christian teachers took it a little too far in saying you can't have paintings, photos, statues--or things of that nature. Wouldn't you say?

In other words, that statue of Mary is a representation of who she is before God. If I worshipped her, then it would be a graven image. But I don't worship Mary. I venerate and respect her profoundly. I also adore her sweetness, the way you would adore the sweetness in a newborn's face.

Don't bother to argue this point with me, guys. If you can't understand what I said, you have an Obtuse spirit.

Obtuse: annoyingly insensitive or slow (or unable because of bias or bigotry) to understand.

The point is, while Moses was on the mountain with God, in the very same session, God gave Moses the pattern for the Ark, the carved angels over the Mercy Seat. And then the tablets saying that, "You shall have no other God beside Me". No graven image.

And those stones went inside this tabernacle of the Ark, with carved images of angels hovering over the Mercy Seat. Now how do you resolve THAT? In one moment, He's saying, "Don't have any graven images." And the next moment, He's telling Moses what the angels were to look like, and what they are to be made out of.

How can we be so blind???

Well, I for one think Satan knows the power conveyed by a statue or image, and that Heaven can manifest through a statue. A Saint can manifest through a statue. After all, all the matter in Heaven is totally different than what we have on Earth. There are inter-dimensions.

And there's an instance--many instances of this around the world. But right now, especially in the Philippines. There is a statue of Mary that moves. Her veil moves and her mouth moves. And it's been recorded--it's on the Internet. And what comes with that manifestation is the conviction that Heaven, God, and the saints and angels are REAL. So, get your life cleaned up and give it to Jesus! Or, as Mary would say, "Give your life to my Son."

So, the enemy knows the power of a statue, a picture, an image. There are images of Jesus that weep blood in testimony to the veracity of the image. There are icons that weep oil. And these things manifest--not by the power of Satan, but by the power of the Holy Spirit. They are SIGNS and WONDERS to Believers, to encourage them. To make them strong.

These oils that weep from icons have been known to work miracles and to heal people.

So, the enemy knows the power of a statue, a picture, an image.. so, in the secular world he uses them like crazy to make men and women sin. And if he can deprive us of the consolation of seeing an image that reminds us of Heaven, or a friend in Heaven, he can isolate us. And we certainly won't think to ask for their intercession! After all that's demon worship...right?

Do you see how clever the enemy is in depriving us of the fullness of God??

But honestly--and this is the point. I can't be in this ministry to you in good conscience by caring one whit about the opinions of man. That would really make me a hypocrite! To keep Mary from you when I've been released--just because I might lose donors? Just because I might lose subs? No way! You can all leave the Channel, but I will not compromise on the Truth.

You see, now you have what has been stolen from the Early Church. You have the sacraments back. You have the intercession of the saints back. You are totally united with all of Heaven and alone no more.

Now, this does require a bit of discernment and discretion, because the Devil has his imitations.

Satan concocted familiar spirits because God created saints for our companions. The saints and the angels. And Satan knows full well the loneliness you and I suffer on this Earth in the midst of our families--so he gave us his "helpers" which are indeed demons, in imitation of the angels and saints God gave us!

Let me tell you a story. Before I was converted, I wanted to be a trance medium, and I was studying to do that. And I wanted to help others find their way in life by obtaining supernatural knowledge from what I thought were angelic beings. But in fact, were deep, dark demons dressed in costumes that would appeal to me. For instance, at that time in my life, which around the Hippie time--a guru, a medicine man, a prophet. Boy was I fooled. You can read all about that in my conversion narrative.

But here is the point. When a trance medium told me I had a companion and gave me his name, I cried all night thanking God for this gift. Little did I know it's real nature.

And here I want to digress for a moment and say: do not judge those in the New Age. Many of them have been so wounded by the church, so disgusted with the hypocrisy, they turned to another source. Being molested by a priest would cause anyone to want to run!

But this is the point: many New Agers are looking for God, looking for truth and for many, a betrayal lies at the base of their rejecting religion. Even John Ramirez, would have given his life to Christ at a church service if the pastor going down the aisle, hugging everyone--welcoming them home, hadn't avoided John. That broke his heart. He was so ready to give his life to Christ. But then he felt rejected by God and he turned to Satan. He had no one else to turn to, folks. The source of all life and goodness had rejected him and that wasn't fair--so he went to the one who would receive him.

So, don't judge these people's motives; God alone reserves that right.

Satan cannot create anything on his own, it has to be a copy of something the Lord created. Like his black mass, where they drink human blood, in mockery of the Blood of Jesus. And you will never see a witch stealing communion bread from a non-denominational church, never! But they will wait in line to steal a Communion Host from the Catholic church... because they know that's the real thing.

I digressed, again! Sorry. You see how bad I am?

Oh, and that brings me to an illumination I had during worship with Holy Spirit. He was so beautiful this morning. He actually danced with me. And I got the distinct impression that He may be wanting me to do a portrait of Him. He was dressed like a King. His suit was red, with ornaments all over it. You know, like the kind kings wear, and the sash they wear across their chest? And He had short hair and sparkling blue eyes.

And He has so many things that He infused me with. Just standing there talking to Him--that's why I got so excited and wanted to share them with you.

So, what was so different about Mary?

Well, by my own lack, I recognize something major I have lacked in my life: holy discretion. Mary did not lose graces. She was full of grace, and she hid things in her heart and continued to be full of grace. Full and fuller and fuller to overflowing of grace, which is why her intercession is so powerful. She knew how to preserve and protect the gifts of God.

How many times have I been given a grace--only to let Satan steal it that very same day? Or to question it? Or to be irreverent with it? To tell it when it was private. To alter it just a little; to defile it by using it to be recognized rather than to do good? How many times??

You don't want to know. But I will say this much the Lord indeed told you the truth when He said I was the worst sinner He could find.

The point is, Mary rarely says anything in the Bible. Why is that? Because she kept things hidden in her heart, where they were safe.

When it was time, she disclosed it to Luke, so he could share it with the world and be edified. But still, what she told him is precious little compared to the vast treasury of graces hidden in this golden vessel.

And that is the perfect introduction to the second leg of our journey in learning about Mary.

Mary visits Elizabeth.

Mary Visits Elizabeth. Beginning at Luke 1, verse 39

Mary arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah. And entered into the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.

The Visitation of Gabriel the Angel gave Mary instruction of her mission in life, which is exactly what heavenly visitors do. They advise, through the power of the Holy Spirit, which fills them in Heaven so that they have all the knowledge they need, to do their jobs on Earth. They are His messengers, because God loves to use everyone to bring His Kingdom to Earth.

But Mary--I am fairly sure, was so overwhelmed by her mission, that she wanted to see the miracle done to Elizabeth, as well as knowing that she was advanced in years. And she wanted to help her. I am sure she wanted to share with Elizabeth their mutual missions and have holy companionship over the remarkable things that had happened to them.

So, she made haste. She went quickly.

Now, here's the perfect set-up. Engaged to Joseph, but not having known him, and perhaps even consecrated to him as a virgin... Is gone for three months and comes back...pregnant. I am sure she recognized the repercussions this would have on his faith in her. But nonetheless, she went and cared for her cousin, Elizabeth.

So, we are given through this episode some of the most remarkable Messianic prophecies in the Bible.

Luke 1:41-42 When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. She called out with a loud voice, and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!"

These are the very words we speak in the Rosary, straight from Scripture, guys. But the fruit from Mary's womb was not only Jesus, but the copious fruit He would bear and the fruit Mary would also bear from Heaven, as many would turn to her for her intercession. And her continuing role as Mother of the Church would bring forth many children. I will go into this in the seventh message on Mary.

Luke 1:43-44 "Why am I so favored, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For behold, when the voice of your greeting came into my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy!"

So, here is a Scriptural proclamation that Mary is the Mother of the Lord, coming from the mouth of Elizabeth--who is filled with the Holy Spirit. So truly, Heaven regards her as the Mother of God. Not by authoring God, but by association, as the Spouse of the Holy Spirit and Father God.

She continued to say: Luke 1:45 "Blessed is she who believed, for there will be a fulfillment of the things which have been spoken to her from the Lord!"

Scripture again reveals Mary's enormous faith. She had no impediments to her faith through her bloodline, because she had been prepared by God to carry His Son in a vessel untainted by the sins of Adam and Eve and all subsequent generations at her immaculate conception.

And this is a good time to introduce Mary as the Second Eve. What Eve lost in the Garden of Eden, Mary recovers by unwavering faith, unwavering obedience and purity in bringing forth the second Adam, our Redeemer, Jesus the Christ.

Scripture reveals:

~vs. 39 Mary received a confirmation to the visitation of the angel, Elizabeth was pregnant.

~vs. 41 The Holy Spirit came over Elizabeth and she prophesied Mary was blessed among women. Mary was pregnant with Jesus, whom she recognized as her Lord coming to her, and John the Baptist bore witness to Jesus' presence in Mary by leaping in her womb.

~vs. 45 Mary was filled with faith, which Elizabeth recognized, "Blessed is she who believed for there will be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her from the Lord."

So, Scripture reveals, through Mary's response, that this was no ordinary village girl. In fact, the Church Father's affirm that she was presented in the temple at a very early age and grew there in the Temple into womanhood. At the age of 14 the priests found her an appropriate spouse in Joseph, whose almond branch miraculously bloomed.

Now, this is Mary's response to Elizabeth's greeting:

Luke 1:46-56 Mary said,

"My soul magnifies the Lord. My spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior, for he has looked at the humble state of his servant. For behold, from now on, all generations will call me blessed. For he who is mighty has done great things for me. Holy is his name. His mercy is for generations of generations on those who fear him. He has shown strength with his arm. He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He has put down princes from their thrones.

And has exalted the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things. He has sent the rich away empty.

He has given help to Israel, his servant, that he might remember mercy. As he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and his offspring forever." Amen. Mary stayed with her about three months, and then returned to her house.

Now, let's take a deeper look at this beautiful, beautiful prophecy in Scripture.

Taking a deeper look into this passage of Scripture, much about Mary is revealed. First of all, she had a prophetic gift. She was filled with the Holy Spirit, Who is the author of prophecy, and opened her mouth to praise God for this great miracle.

Luke 1:46-47 "My soul magnifies the Lord. My spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior, for he has looked at the humble state of his servant."

Here she acknowledges both that Jesus is her God and her Savior, and is aware of her lowly estate. Not a Queen or princess, but a village girl who was blessed to be brought up in the Temple. I think it was great wisdom that in that day girls were trained in the Temple, because it would form them holiness, so that in their futures as mothers they could train their children in holiness. And bring their male children up in holiness.

Luke 1:48 For behold, (she continued) from now on, all generations will call me blessed."

Now, here she declares prophetically that she will stand out as a woman from all generations and be revered, and in the next verse declares the reason for that.

Luke 1:49 "For he who is mighty has done great things for me. Holy is his name."

Here, she takes no credit on herself for that, but rather makes it a point to say how lowly she is. This is quite the opposite of a human queen who would declare her prerogatives and draw honor to herself.

Luke 1:50 "His mercy is for generations of generations on those who fear him."

She proclaims God's faithfulness, not just to her family but to all generations of men, revealing that she had an acute awareness of mankind, not just the concerns of day to day of a village girl.

In the following verses, I imagine that she has seen many proud and those of royal birth, frequenting the Temple--which in our day would be an equivalent to the palaces of princes--bringing their babies in for circumcision. She had plenty of experiences serving the rich and hearing their conversations, and was acutely aware that they lived in the imaginations of their own heart, not in the reality of God's heart.

This is not a degree of wisdom found in a mere 14-year-old.

And I want to say, I have nothing against the rich. They have a very important job in the economy of Heaven. But very often, with all these things come all these distractions and value shifts from things of God to the things of the Earth and of men. But here she's shown a complete detachment from that.

It continues: Luke 1:51-53 "He has shown strength with his arm. He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He has put down princes from their thrones. And has exalted the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things. He has sent the rich away empty."

When the wealthy came to the Temple, they made their royal presence known. Being quite full of themselves, they came empty of God and left still emptier. While the little one, the lowly one who would be exalted, as the Scripture says, was right there before them. Yet I doubt very much if they could see her any more than the scribes and Pharisees could recognize Jesus in His poor demeanor.

She continues: Luke 1:54-55 "He has given help to Israel, his servant, that he might remember mercy. As he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and his offspring forever."

Here Mary reveals a knowledge of the prophecies of the Messiah and the promises to Abraham.

Now, in the 56th verse, it says Mary stayed with her about three months. Mary stayed with Elizabeth about three months, and then returned to her house. I can only imagine, as she saw her belly gradually expanding, that she knew when Joseph saw her he would be devastated. Yet she entrusted herself to the Lord and His providence to inform Joseph.

In those days, a woman bearing a child before coming together with her husband was a disgrace. And often rejected by the husband and was stoned to death. This was a prospect I am sure the enemy of our salvation threatened her with.

I can even imagine him suggesting she ingest herbs to cause an abortion, or taunting her with nightmares of being rejected by Joseph and stoned to death. The devils never give up in their campaigns to destroy everything holy. I am sure they hated her because of her humility. lack of presumption and pride. And wondered if God was going to use her to be their undoing.

This is all conjecture on my part, dear ones.

"Blessed is she who believed for there will be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her from the Lord." Lord, have You got anything to add?

Jesus began, "You know you were reading My mind when you said that Satan probably taunted her. He recognized her from an early age, because of the angels assigned to her. He was waiting for the birth of the Messiah, so he and all his kingdom was on the alert for a holy girl child.

"What happened at her conception, when flocks of angels hovered over the proceedings, aroused their suspicion. And from that point on she was marked as a candidate.

"Evil knows no boundaries, Clare, and several times they plotted to miscarry this child. Even the witches in the area knew of her and set several traps for her feet and her demise. But because she corresponded to the graces given at conception, she was highly respondent to her conscience and was careful to avoid anything that had even a whiff of corruption or wrong doing.

"It was because of her obedience that she did not get injured."

When He said that, I saw her as a very little child, like 3 and a half years old. And she was indoors, in an adobe house, very hungry--but having to wait for the supper hour. She was looking at hearth cakes on the table with great longing, but asked her mother, "May I have a hearth cake?"

Who replied, "Not yet, wait until dinner."

Which was still a ways off. Even though the enemy tried to tempt her to take one, she completely erased it from her mind and waited patiently.

You see, one of those hearth cakes had a spot of mold, which Anne later recognized, and according to Jewish laws of cleanliness, destroyed the whole batch and kept Mary from being poisoned by it. "There are times too numerous to mention when her virtue was tested, Beloved."

Wow!

"But believe Me when I tell you, she was continually attacked in dreams, visions, and demonic visitations at night, suggesting she destroy what was growing in her womb.

"Just like I have done with you, she had to be perfected in virtue and obedience, because later on in life, My very survival depended on it.

"There was one incident where an elderly witch, posing as a loving friend in the community, brought freshly baked cakes to Anne under the guise of a blessing. But they were heavily laced with poison. Both of them, both Mary and Anne, destroyed the gift immediately, sensing danger--even though they looked very appetizing.

"I cannot tell you how many times Satan attempted to take her life. Even in the Temple, there were some unscrupulous individuals that thought to molest her, but they were stopped by her angels.

"Time and time again she faced multitudes of dangers, and always, always made the right decision--no matter how tempting the invitation to do wrong appeared. She was quite detached from her flesh, which closed many a door of opportunity to harm her. Her conscience was exceeding well developed, and she knew that nothing good could come of disobedience, so she avoided it like the plague. Even when it made no sense to her and cost her a great deal, still she hearkened to My Spirit and did not once give way to the temptations.

"It had to be so. Just as I have allowed many trials in your lives to cultivate virtue, My dear ones, so in her life she was sorely tried, because of the importance of her mission.

"So, let me say at this point, she knows well how to comfort those who are being tempted. And you couldn't possibly have a better advocate to pray for you. And if you are extremely blessed, to be able to see and even converse with in times of trial."

Now...I'm SURE the Lord doesn't mean in replacement for Him! Mary is a friend. God is our Creator. And Jesus is our Creator. So. This is a friendship relationship that He's talking about. Please don't put words and intentions into my mouth! God is God, and Mary is a creature.

"Think deeply on these things, Heartdwellers." Jesus continued. "You have been given an enormous gift, a gift worth so much that Satan has done everything to discourage you from going anywhere near it. Please begin to enter into this gift and use it.

"Those who come under Mary's covering reach perfection of heart much more swiftly than those without her motherly covering. It was never intended by Me that you should have a single parent family, with no mother and no siblings to offer consolation, instruction, and prayers on your behalf.

"That is just one small facet of why I appeared before the Apostles with Moses and Elijah. I broke the distortion and misuse of the injunction that you shall not consult the dead, because I was indeed consulting with those who had LIVED, but were now STILL LIVING in Heaven. Just as I did then, it is possible for you to do now with My mother, with Me, and others in the great Cloud.

"Do not waste this precious gift!

"And finally. As concerns the Rapture, My Brides, you are approaching the closing moments of this chapter in your lives. Be prepared. Do not live for yourselves. Live to do good to others and pull back from earthly pursuits. Spend your time with ME, cultivating your relationship with Me.

"And one thing I will tell you about your Mother in Heaven, is when you commit to a relationship with her, she guards you against deception. She knows the real thing and the imposter. And people who have a devotion to Mary will not be easily fooled by the antiChrist, or the False Prophet.

"If you could see Nibiru in plain sight right now, you would not delay your conversion for one more second. The problem is that they are blocking the view, because they want you caught unaware, so you will die when it comes close to Earth. This is part of the plan: to get rid of two thirds of the Earth's population.

"And for you who are working for the Elite... Do you think they care about your family, your brothers, sisters, aunts and uncles--or even your mother and father. Do you really think they have made a provision for your relatives or your pets?

"You are serving a ruthless taskmaster who will tell you whatever you want to hear to deceive you into working for them. And when that moment comes, they will close the doors to their underground cities with this excuse, "I'm sorry, there's no more room for you and your family."

"They will lead you along to use you. And if you are Muslim, they will use you to do their dirty work and then shut the door when Nibiru is bringing this planet into dire situations.

"I will never forsake or abandon you. Give your life to Me and I will protect you and bring you into Heaven. I do not lie. But the ones you work for do not know how to tell the truth, because the truth is not in them. They are deceivers, like their father, Satan.

"If you come to Me, I will receive you, and at death you will have nothing to fear. I will be with you and take you to Myself.

"And some of you, I will protect and you will not die, but be spared supernaturally and live to see My return.

"I am the Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End. And I love you, because I brought you forth from your mother's womb. You have turned away from Me because you did not know Me, but knew evil men pretending to know Me, and they wounded you deeply.

*"I will pour fresh oil on your wounds and take you to Myself, because I love you. How do you know this?
Because I died on the Cross to prove to you this love.*

"Come to Me. I receive you."

Scripture Reveals Mary's Role in the Church 3 of 7

September 28, 2018

Thank you, Jesus, for the beautiful revelations You have shared with us about Your mother's role in the Church. Please remind us to enlist her daily in our prayers, because truly she is honored by You, and all generations will call her blessed among women. Amen.

This is the third in a series about Mary's role in the Church according to Scripture. Number three in a seven-part series.

So, today we're going to share about the Wedding in Cana. Taken from John 2:1-12 And I'm using the English Standard Version here:

The Wedding at Cana

On the third day, there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

Now, there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. And he said to them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast."

So, they took it. When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now."

This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him. After this he went down to Capernaum, with his mother and his brothers and his disciples, and they stayed there for a few days. John 2:1012. I love this story--it's a beautiful story.

First of all, Scripture reveals Jesus has a great deal of love and respect for His mother and the fifth commandment. "Honor your mother and father." It says: On the third day, there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."

Now, this was a tremendous embarrassment to the young couple who were just starting off on their life together. But like most of us, when we are young, we may not have enough money for a lavish meal with plenty of wine, especially if more people show up than what's been planned for.

I believe that was a very painful moment for them. And I also believe that Jesus was fully aware of it.

Certainly, any kind of blemish on a celebration would cause a stir among the crowd that could be felt. Nonetheless, Jesus did not lift a finger to lessen their embarrassment.

The question here is, did Jesus know they were out of wine? Could God be ignorant that a commodity so important to a celebration was gone?

Dear ones, this is NOT God's nature. Can you imagine Father God, who owns the cattle on the thousand hills, not lifting a finger to help this young couple? I can't. He is just too good and loving to pass by this opportunity to do a kindness.

After all, Scripture states that, "Jesus went about doing good." Acts 10:38

Now, I believe Mary was so tender-hearted that she couldn't bear to see this couple embarrassed and being the talk of the town on their very special day. So, she went to her Son, knowing full well that He could remedy the problem. And said, "Son. They have no wine."

Jesus came to Earth, not only to die for us sinners, but to reveal the true heart of the Father. How could He pass up this opportunity to do good? I believe it was a matter of timing, and that He was not willing to do a miracle before His time to be revealed.

And this is how He answered her: Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come."

Now, for you and I, in our English language, this seems like a rebuff--calling His mother "woman." That has always sounded very disrespectful to me. But in the process of looking for an image for this story, I ran across something called "Got Questions" on the Internet. And this is what the person said.

"The term woman was used like we use the term 'ma'am'. By addressing Mary this way, Jesus does distance Himself from His mother somewhat--He was exerting His independence from her wishes--but in no way was it a rude manner of speaking.

"What does this have to do with me?" (ESV) or "Why do you involve me?" (NIV).

"Again, Jesus is expressing the fact that He is independent of His mother; as eager as Mary was to see Jesus do a miracle, she had no right to determine the time or the manner in which Jesus publicly revealed His glory.

"Jesus makes His point gently and without being rude. However, Jesus did act, performing His first miracle. He turned the water into wine, but He did so in a very subtle, subdued way. Only the servants, Mary, and a few disciples even knew what He had done.

"So, Jesus isn't being rude or dismissive in John 2:4. He's politely pointing out that He follows God's timing, not Mary's; and that this is not His moment to be publicly revealed. Some of the respectful tone is lost in translation, perhaps, but Jesus was not being rude."

At that's the end of the little snippet from Got Questions on the Internet.

So, Scripture reveals that Mary knew her Son's heart.

I believe that even though she sensed His motive for not acting yet was that He didn't want His mission revealed. She also knew He loved her and would do anything He could to please her, for all she had suffered and would suffer in her life for Him. And the fifth commandment, honor thy mother and father, would be in His mind as well, I'm sure.

Scripture also reveals that Mary's absolute trust in her Son's goodness, and the need for all to respond to Him in obedience, no matter how foolish it seems.

Can't you just picture this? I was thinking about this earlier. Here they are, out of wine, and Jesus tells them to fill jars with water?! Each jar held 20 to 30 gallons! And there were six of them!! 180 gallons of water--for what? Are you kidding me?

The feast is almost over. After long days of preparation and celebration, it was getting late, they had worked hard, they were hungry and tired. I can just hear the servants saying, "This guy's mashugana!

Something ain't right 'bout this."

By the way, mashugana is a Yiddish word for looney-tunes...

But Scripture reveals, His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Oh, this is such a beautiful Key to Mary.

1. Mary's faith in her Son's goodness. She knew His Heart and put her trust in Him, even though He gave her no grounds for hope.
2. Her ability to counsel. She knew that the servants might respond with a little scorn and resistance, so she counseled them to be obedient, ahead of time.

So, there were the six stone water jars. Ah... "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. And he said to them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast." So, they took it. When the master of the feast tasted the water, now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now." This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him.

How beautiful. What beautiful fruit that is!

Now, Scripture reveals that Mary's intercession moved on Jesus to do His first public miracle, out of season.

1. Jesus knew they had no more wine, but He was not willing to step in. Until His mother approached Him with her heartfelt concern
2. And moved by her petition, He granted her wish.
3. And what did she do? Turned around and instructed the servants as to what their response should be, no matter how foolish the situation looked. She could see and understand things about her son that they could not see or understand.

Dear ones, Jesus is still responding to His mother's petitions. If I had a choice of anyone to pray for me in Heaven or on Earth, as a prayer partner--who would I choose?

We have already established that Jesus set the precedent on the Mount of Transfiguration, that it is permitted to talk with the saints in glory. And we are surrounded by a Cloud of Witnesses urging us on with their prayers and guidance.

Angels, for instance, speak to us and leave impressions, warnings, or encouragements to do or not do, and we are aware of their watchfulness over us at times. If we are to pray without ceasing, how can we not pray in Heaven as the Cloud when we watch our children headed for the edge of a cliff, or distracted away from their perfect destiny?

People often ask, "Where is the Rosary in the Bible? I've never heard of the rosary in the Bible." And I tell them, because I've gotten tired of going through these long, long explanations. I ask them, "Where is the Holy Trinity in the Bible? If you answer that for me, I will answer where the Rosary is in the Bible." And then of course, I give them references to these teachings.

But so far, through Scripture alone, we have established that Mary was: conceived without the stains of the sins of Adam and Eve. She was pure and a virgin. Trusting and obedient. Gifted in prophecy. Worshipful and acknowledging Jesus as her Savior from the womb. And willing to serve, even when it would look to others like she had been unchaste.

She was able to safeguard grace and grow in grace, without losing what God had given her. And she was highly favored by God. Her character was outstanding.

God is with Mary. She had cultivated the presence of God in her life, even at the age of 14. And she is Blessed among women. In other words, set apart above all other women.

She was meek and humble and full of grace, hiding God's words in her heart.

She was chosen by God to carry His Son in her womb, and she would be cherished through all generations. She was obedient even though her obedience could have cost her her life.

So, these are things that the Lord is revealing to us about Mary, IN the Scriptures.

And finally, from this segment, she was an intercessor. A tremendous intercessor and teacher. And able to counsel people according to what should be done for her son, and how they should obey. She knew her son and she knew what He liked, and what He didn't like.

And she counseled them. And she counsels me. I still see her and hear her, sometimes when I'm praying, I'll get an impression or word. Just like I see and hear Jesus. And many times, Mary is with Jesus when I'm being given a word. They appear together.

As far as her prayers are concerned, she is responsible for guiding and praying me into an intimate relationship with Jesus. She is the Mother of the Bride, and has helped to form me into who I am to Jesus, bringing me deeply into the family of God with a mother and Father. She is one of the greatest gifts ever given to mankind.

God bless you, Heartdwellers. Please take these messages to heart and enlist Our Lady in your cause by praying the rosary.

And I want to thank those of you who have sent us donations. We really appreciate it. We're running a little short right now, so we haven't been able to give to the cause of trafficked children lately. But we've had a few needs here. We've gotten firewood for several very poor families out in the wilderness here, to help them out. I appreciate so much your giving. And we do share it with those who are in need. So, thank you so very much.

And the Lord bless you for your kindness to us.

Scripture Reveals Mary's Role in the Church 4 of 7 My Mother's Virtue

September 30, 2018

Lord Jesus, thank You for the beautiful insights into Your mother. Please open our hearts and minds to receive from You all that you want us to have. Amen.

Ezekiel told me last night that the Lord had another message for the Channel. This was when I was just in the final mixing stages of I Sought the Lord song. So, here I am asking for the other message and Jesus reminded me I forgot about Him in the Temple as a child. So, that will be the message after this.

But here is what He wanted to say about His mother, that I really didn't give Him a chance to say when I did the third teaching.

Jesus began, "I am so glad you asked, and I did want to share with you something from your last teaching.

"My people, do you not know that everything in the Scriptures is loaded with meanings? Plural. That is, more than one meaning to each episode. This situation, the wedding at Cana, was presented to you as an illustration of the power of prayer—not even in words, but prayer of the heart. I have told this to you before. The sigh of your heart for the plight of others is a powerful prayer going straight to the Throne Room. Why? Because within the heart, I dwell. And it is the seat of your soul and selfless sincerity.

"It was the intention of My mother's heart and her distress over the couple's lack that prompted her to approach Me. I wanted you to see how very moved with care she is over your situations that bring distress. I wanted you to see the selfless love and concern she has for all of you.

"And yes, I wanted you to see that she has been appointed by Me as a mother and intercessor for mankind. 'Who is My mother, My brother, My sister? He or she who does the will of My Father in Heaven. These are true mothers, brothers, and sisters to Me.'

"Yet it is only fitting that the spotless one who brought Me into this world, who kept her purity of heart, who was faithful to the very last drop of her being when she witnessed My crucifixion, never once calling out to Abba, "Save Him, Father!" Never once did she disagree with My mission and what must be fulfilled in Scripture.

"Growing up in the Temple, she knew the Messiah must suffer rejection and die at the cruel hands of the Romans. She knew that only Romans could crucify and that what was written: 'I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint; my heart is like wax; it is melted within my breast; my strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue sticks to my jaws; you lay me in the dust of death. For dogs encompass me; a company of evildoers encircles me; they have pierced my hands and feet.' Psalm 22:14-16

And to complete the Lord's thought here, Mary knew that only the Romans could crucify. And that what was written in Psalm 22 would have to be accomplished by the Messiah.

Jesus continued, "She knew this Psalm well, because it was regularly recited in the Temple in anticipation of the Messiah. There were men who knew the Messiah must suffer, but they looked forward to His deliverance, perhaps even a miracle of deliverance, to prove that I was indeed the Messiah.

"Those who believed were vindicated when I rose from the dead and they heard of it. I appeared to many of them, for their hearts were broken. I commissioned them to carry on the work. Yes, many of the Pharisees and priests converted.

"But My Mother knew I must first undergo this suffering. She lived with this prospect looming in her heart all of her days, knowing that someday she would have to offer Me on that Cross.

"You have no idea what she went through for you, My people, no idea at all. And that is why it is such a terrible offense to Me when people reject her motherly love.

"The Devil continually looked for ways to bring her down. He couldn't stand the idea that a woman had more favor and power from God than he did. And he couldn't stand the idea that she was mothering the Apostles and being looked upon as a mother to the family of God.

"He also engineered a deep split in the Church through the behavior of wicked men posing as My Apostles. And then, at just the right time, used a movement based on legitimate sins of the hierarchy to introduced this false doctrine about worshiping Mary and that the dead in Christ could not pray for you.

"Lies! All of them lies. Cleverly executed by the Master Deceiver.

"And now, I have come to restore her to her rightful place in the Church. But anyone who brings her up is automatically marked as deceived and an idol worshipper. Yet their reward is not lost with Me in Heaven. They have been faithful to bear witness to the truth.

"When you give your lives to Me, very often you must break with family tradition and lifestyles that are prohibited to a Christian, because they are not healthy for you. But in the process, you inherit more relatives than you ever had before.

"The bond of Christian family love is very strong, because it is grounded and rooted in Me. Of course, My mother would be your mother, even as an elderly woman in the church is called 'mother'. This is a moot point and a complete waste of time to argue over.

"But understand that there was more than one reason I entrusted her with you. She is all the things a leader should be: loving, strong, uncompromising, sacrificing, filled with the knowledge of God and Heaven. And most of all, so totally committed to her children that she, too, gave her only Son for the salvation of the world.

"And she has not missed a day in her Office. Rather, she has grown in status and responsibility over the centuries, as she has been so very faithful in caring for mankind, who I saved.

"So, I have given her special gifts to handle the volume of prayer and supplication she receives. She is well aware at all times of your situation, through the Holy Spirit. She is also aware of your temperament, what you would probably do—and what she knows I want you to do.

"And therein lies her secret: My mother knows Me better than anyone—other than the Holy Spirit and the Father.

"She knows what pleases Me, and therefore she does not always present your petitions to Me, unless they are pure and without selfish motive. Rather, she works with you until you have overcome these faults. She observes your character and nudges you in your conscience to do the right thing.

"When you fall, she is there to wipe the tears from your eyes, to tend to the wound on your knee, so to speak. A consoling word to you. After all, she consoled Me in all My trials. She was My advocate, anticipating outcomes and preparing solutions, praying to the Father and listening to His counsel. She was never far from Him. She was, rather, always aware of His Presence within her, and cultivated that inner union of hearts that is so precious to His Heart.

"She looks after those who have really blown it in their lives and are afraid to turn to Me for forgiveness. She paves the way for reconciliation, and very often when they are praying the Rosary, I appear to them. Through her intercession and intervention, she has saved countless souls that were headed for Hell. Just through her prayers and good counsel.

"Just like the Good Vinedresser, she intercedes and asks permission to take a desperate soul under her mantle, and I yield to her and give that soul to her to work with. I give them another chance.

"So, he said to the keeper of the vineyard, 'Look, for the past three years I have come to search for fruit on this fig tree and haven't found any. Therefore, cut it down! Why should it use up the soil?' 'Sir, the man replied, 'leave it alone again this year, until I dig around it and fertilize it. If it bears fruit next year, fine. But if not, you can cut it down.' Luke 13:7-9

"This indeed is My mother's mandate, to take those who had not born fruit and give them loving attention to help them rise up to serve."

As an aside, dear ones, I noticed this is from the Gospel of Luke, which makes a tremendous amount of sense. Because it is known that much of this gospel came from Mary as she sat with Luke and shared with him the life of Jesus. She explained many secrets to Luke things unknown in the other Gospels. So, it comes as no surprise that this very role of hers, to dig around and fertilize a soul so they will bear fruit, would be in his gospel.

Jesus continues, "Her tenderness penetrates the hardest hearts and brings them to repentance. Only the truly reprobate escape her care—not because she gives up on them, but because they want nothing to do with her or holiness."

As an aside, why shouldn't that be so? If she's filled with the Holy Spirit, and the Holy Spirit is the One who brings us to repentance. That makes total sense, because He would guide her in how to touch them. And He would be present to move on their hearts.

Jesus continued, "Oh, there is so much I want to tell you about this holy woman, so much. She is the very epitome of the word, 'Mother'. Countless souls have repented at her gentle touch and rededicated their lives to Me."

Well, come to think of it, I would like to share with you that there have been times when I was SO disgusted with myself, I just could not face the Lord. And those would be the times that I would go running to her mother-shelter. I could feel her cloak wrapping my in peace as I repented and confessed. And asked for her intercession. And I can't even tell you what happened. All I know is, I got my peace back! And the sense that I wasn't hopeless. There was hope. And very shortly after that, I would encounter Jesus. He would approach me.

And I have to say. I know it was her intercession who brought Him quickly to my side. Looking back on this and knowing that the Lord is always with us when we repent, He's ready to receive our repentance - maybe that's not accurate. Maybe what Mary did was restore belief in myself, or restore the knowledge of God's Mercy. But she does something when I really blow it. Turn my heart to a place where I can be before Jesus, and not slink down a hole... Which is what I feel I should do, with a rock covering it. It's a Grace. It's a beautiful Grace that's been given to her, that prepares the way for her Son.

Going back to what Jesus continued to say.

"Countless have chosen the path of holiness because of her example of faithfulness to Me. Countless souls have sought her in times of really blowing it badly, because they know that if she works with them, they will be pleasing to Me and escape from the habits of sins that hold them captive."

"I love to talk about her. I love her so very tenderly, and there is not one soul that can hold a candle to her spotless example."

Well, I can just hear it now. The protests of people who will say, "Scripture says that there's not ONE that is without sin. Not even one." Well, I'm not going to pass judgment on Mary, that's for certain. But I will say one thing. I did notice in the Scriptures that it says that she was distressed over the loss of Jesus in Jerusalem. What mother wouldn't be?? Good grief!

And maybe that distress is the one thing in her life that came the closest to some kind of a sin. Or unbelief or lack of faith. Perhaps that. Perhaps that could be said to be the one sin in her life.

Still, it's hard for me to see that as sin, because even Jesus, in the Garden of Gethsemane asked the Father to take this cup from Him. Even He was anxious over the role that He was playing in salvation. Totally committed. 'Not My will, but Thine be done.' Totally committed, but still. In extreme distress over what He was about to go through. And wishing that the cup could be passed. You could call that a sin. Which you can't—because He was sinless! So, we can't call that a sin. What can I say? Let's try not to be too legalistic. And let's not be wearing a Pharisee hat.

And I just want to take a moment to thank you so very much for your prayers for my music. They definitely, definitely are being heard by the Lord. And thank you also for looking after our other needs.

The Lord bless you abundantly for your kindness to us and the poor.

Priestly Gifts of The Elect

April 8th, 2021

Peace and grace to you Dear Family. Father Ezekiel had sent out a message recently to all our Heartdweller priests and intercessors, which I'd like to share with all of you, as the Lord so very much needs every one of our prayers.

Ezekiel began, it is said that we use only a small portion of our brain and the Lord has prompted me that His priests are only using a small portion of their gifts and work for the salvation of souls. The next time you hear about an urgent call to prayer, someone in the hospital, in a coma or on their sick bed near death, you need to immediately stop what you are doing and go to them in the spirit. You may only have moments before they pass away, it is imperative that you go to them instantly.

Visualize yourself sitting by their bedside. Introduce yourself and comfort them by holding their hand and telling them that Jesus loves them and will forgive them. Even those in a coma can hear you and understand what you are saying to them. Give them an absolution, communion, last rites and bless them with the sign of the cross on their forehead. The holy oil will be there waiting for you. If time permits, you can bless them with the sign of the cross on the five wounds of Jesus.

Thank you, dear priests and prayer warriors, for taking your responsibilities and work for the Lord seriously. You will all store up great wonders and treasures in Heaven. And that was the end of his message.

Shortly after this message was sent out, I received an email from one of our incredibly faithful and dedicated priests, who took it to heart and shared her experience with us of what happened when she responded to the call for an urgent prayer request.

She began, I was just praying for a soul and like Father Ezekiel said, I went to her in the spirit... here's what happened... here's what I saw:

I asked the Lord to put the full armor on me and since I was going in the spirit realm I asked for an escort. Next thing I knew I was flying in the spirit with someone beside me... I didn't see who it was but I felt they were guiding me. I saw what looked like a hospital below and then I'm in the hallways looking for her room. I went into a room (don't know how I knew what room but anyway) I saw a woman, laying on the hospital bed and a man sitting beside her bed with his head down on the side of the bed as if he was praying. He couldn't see me and he didn't know I was there. I went to the woman and started praying in tongues over her. I put my hand on hers. I looked around for the healing oil and saw it on the table on the other side of her bed, so I walked around and got it and started anointing her head, hands and feet all the while I was still praying in tongues.

I got back over to the side where the man was still bent over the side of her bed and I prayed the prayer Bishop Seamus gave us, to give absolution to anyone who was truly sorry for their sins, but didn't have access to a priest especially the sick and dying (I'm really new to all of this as I have no Catholic background and not sure I did this right). Then I gave her a Spiritual Communion, then I leaned down and kissed her on the forehead.

As I stood back up and was praying over her, all of a sudden the room lit up so bright and I got such a shock at what I saw... there were a LOT of angels standing in a half circle at the end of her hospital room all facing her...they were beautiful and bright, glowing, golden white. Immediately she rose from the bed and started to walk to them but stopped and turned to the man who was still bent over her bed (he didn't seem to see any of this) and she put her hand very lovingly on his back as she looked at him with such love. Then she looked at me and gave me a gentle hug, then turned to the angels and she seemed to disappear into their glowing light! I was so surprised by this, I sat staring up to the ceiling in my room.

I'm stunned. Did I just witness her passing away into the Presence of God?

I checked The Bible Promises and asked if this was from the Lord and got readings of Work "God always does what is right. He will not forget the work you did to help the Christians and the work you are still doing to help them," Hebrews 6:10-11. I also got Worry "Don't worry, learn to pray about everything. Give thanks to God as you ask Him for what you need. The peace of God is much greater than the human mind can understand. This peace will keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." Philipians 4:6 and 7.

After further discernment, I realized that the woman I was initially praying for was not the woman in the hospital bed, but another woman who was passing over right at that moment who God knew was a more urgent need! Praise God!! His timing was perfect - as soon as I gave her a Spiritual Communion the angels appeared to take her home! WOW! God is sooo AWESOME! We serve an amazing God!! And that was the end of her experience.

Here is the prayer that Bishop Seamus gave to our priests along with these words. In these end times, we have the calling to assist God in saving souls. When we say Mass there is an optional step after the "I Confess Prayer" and before the "Lord Have Mercy Prayer" to grant absolution for sins.

This was given to the Apostles in the upper room (whose sins you retain are retained in Heaven and whose sins are loosened are loosed in Heaven). Here is the prayer:

“Dear Heavenly Father, please grant peace, pardon and absolution to all those who are truly sorry for their sins, especially the sick and dying and those who have no access to a priest. By the Authority of the Apostolic See and the Ministry of the Church, I absolve those who are truly sorry of all their sins, in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, Amen. Go in peace everyone, your sins are forgiven.” This will help Jesus save souls.

After you have distributed Holy Communion say the following prayer. “Dear Heavenly Father, please grant a spiritual communion to all those who want to receive and have no priest to offer them communion and please bless the sick and dying with a spiritual communion. In Jesus name I pray, Amen. Lord hear my prayer.”

Our love, prayers and compassion for others are everything to the Lord. God bless you all dear Heartdwellers.

Scripture Reveals Mary’s Role in the Church 5 of 7 & Travailing Prayer

October 8, 2018

With all my heart, Jesus, I thank you for straightening my course and visiting me with Your Love.

Lord, what is on Your heart today?

“My dearest, you have been through some very turbulent waters this past week, and now I am calling for you to cling to Me with an ever-tightening grip. You have many enemies, but nothing that cannot be handled, especially if you are faithful with your prayers and worship.”

"It costs Me dearly to see you drowning in the waters of confusion, unable to grab onto anything that makes any sense at all. This is a very great suffering, Clare, one that I reserve for My most dedicated. It is like driving in a blind fog as your mind drifts to and fro looking for some sense of security. Even in worship and the Word you have found yourself bereft of consolation. Thank you for bearing up under this trial, My love.

"And thank you for availing yourself of travailing prayer.

"My people, many of you—Clare included—do not go deep enough or passionately enough into your prayers for others. Sometimes I wait and gauge My response. When the usual prayers don't work, that is no time to give up! Another person's life may depend upon it. No, that is time to press in with passion and beg Me for the gift of travailing prayer. Laziness, and preoccupation with things not anywhere near as important, are often the cause. My People, you must break through."

As an aside, my dear ones, I just have been in the doldrums and blahs all last week, unable to do anything with conviction, passion, or purpose. No, I've felt like a wet dishrag left on the counter overnight. All sour and yucky. And disgusted??? Oh, my... I've been so disgusted with my lukewarmness and listlessness!

Finally, over one thing, I was graced with travailing prayer and I asked for a healing—and the Lord granted it! I was so grateful. But on a scale of 10 to 100... I think I would get a 15 grade for prayer and service this past week.

I do think one of my medications is building up to a level that is too high, and is causing this drowsiness. And so, I will go off that for a day and reduce it in half. Maybe that will solve the problem.

Right now, you know those little yellow pills that truckers take? Those good old caffeine pills? Well, I'm taking 1/2 of one every time I start to drift. And it is keeping me alert. But I'm not all tense and pushy, like I normally would be on caffeine. I'm just feeling normal. So, obviously something's out of whack. In the past, it would have made me a nervous wreck, but now it is just keeping me on an even keel.

So, please forgive me for being absent all last week. That was the last thing I wanted.

Jesus continued, "But now, Clare, you are in a better place, and I want you to just plow away at the untilled soil, break up your fallow ground, and plant seeds of salvation for Me, dearest.

“There is also much turmoil in the air, My People, because the infrastructure of your country is coming under massive reordering. Corruption is being flushed out and replaced by those who have a sincere heart for serving this country. This is also a very dark time of the year; a time when Satan puts out his best efforts to subvert all that is good.

“I thank you deeply for supporting Judge Kavanaugh. I thank you for your prayers and resistance to those who would subvert all that is good. This was a key battle that you, My people, have won. Now you must continue to lift him and his family up in prayer for protection. There is far more saber rattling going on, because the Clay feet are finding that the way is blocked for them to pull off some anticipated movements that would disturb the nation. This, too, is the result of your sincere prayers to hold back the violence.

“As for those of you who have taken My mother into your hearts, all I can say is that you have done Me a great honor in going against the lies and calumny of others who will someday deeply regret their pride in rejecting her. There is a certain predilection on holy souls that shines forth, those who accept her with childlike faith. In Heaven, it will be seen plainly that she has been influential in your lives, that you have turned to her for prayers, and followed her example of meekness and devotion.

“Remember, I did not have to come to Earth as a mere infant. I had no need of human intervention to come to you. I stooped to enter the doorway of the Virgin’s womb. Should you not stoop, also, to honor and enlist her prayers? There is great humility reflected in your choice. Proud souls tend to reject her. It is the very little that soon feel the sweetness of her motherly care and cultivate this holy devotion to the woman My Father entrusted with His Son.

“Be of good courage, My Beautiful Brides. You have all passed through some very turbulent waters. Some have been sucked down into the very depths of an angry ocean in a whirl of opposition, with nothing to grasp onto but the memory of My faithfulness.

“Trust that this has been most painful for Me as well as for you. But now, I encourage you to continue to mount upwards into My arms where you will find your peace and security. I will not let you down. Cleave to Me with all your hearts, and continue to show yourselves faithful in prayers and sacrifice.

“Now we will talk about the painful separation My mother endured for three days. Yes, this separation was a sign to her that someday she will again have to release Me to the providence of My Father in Heaven. And a reminder that after three days she will indeed see Me once again.

"It is not mentioned in the Gospels that I met with her first, before all others after My resurrection. She did not tell it, because she didn't want any focus to come upon her as an exceptional soul deserving this privilege. Rather, she left that for the other women, whom she loved dearly.

"So many things, My people, happened in her life that were never told, because she thought it best to keep them hidden in her heart. She waited in silence for My resurrection, knowing it would come soon, but hardly did that comfort the agonies she suffered beholding My crucifixion. One of the things that sustained her in this deepest and darkest trial of her life was the preview given her when I was lost in the Temple.

"Did you not know that I would be in My Father's house?"

"Yes, this lesson gave her hope, beyond human understanding, that soon she would see Me again—and yet, she had no idea what I would look like. Would My hands and feet be scarred? Would I be wearing the grave clothes? Would My body look normal or would it be swollen and misshapen from all the torn skin? Oh, all these things made her shudder to consider. And finally, in her austere wisdom, she laid them to rest and just trusted like a little child that all would be well.

"Before she saw Me, she felt My presence in the room and looked up as her heart stopped—and her whole being was flushed with wonderment. The resurrected energy emanating from My person swept through her heart and body to repair the trauma she suffered at the foot of the Cross.

"Then came the wave of joy and unspeakable laughter. So much laughter. Oh, what a holy moment! All that was written had been accomplished, and now she beheld the Son of God shining on her being. And every tender moment she ever experienced with Me rushed with a flood back into her being, covering those tormenting memories of My suffering. What unspeakable joy, a moment unlike all others, never repeated in this world before, or ever again.

"Clare, she knew what My mission was and she was completely in agreement to meet all of My needs in carrying it out, including the cruel sufferings which nearly cost her own life, so intense was the pain of her heart."

And then after He mentioned Him being lost in the Temple, I decided to go back and read that section of the Gospel.

In Luke 2:41-52 Now His parents went to Jerusalem every year at the Feast of the Passover. And when He became twelve, they went up there according to the custom of the Feast; and as they were returning, after spending the full number of days, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. But His parents were unaware of it; they supposed Him to be in the caravan, and went a day's journey; and then began looking for Him among their relatives and acquaintances.

When they did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem looking for Him. Then, after three days, they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them and asking them questions. And all who heard Him were amazed at His understanding and His answers.

When they saw Him, they were astonished; and His mother said to Him, "Son, why have You treated us this way? Behold, Your father and I have been anxiously looking for You." And He said to them, "Why is it that you were looking for Me? Did you not know that I had to be in My Father's house?"

But they did not understand the statement which He had made to them. And He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and He continued in subjection to them; and His mother treasured all these things in her heart. And Jesus kept increasing in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

And that's the end of that narrative.

Jesus continued, "Clare, I knew they would be concerned for Me. But this was a lesson that she had to learn, now, so that in that hour of her greatest torment, she could reflect on My faithfulness. It was right and fitting that I should be in the Temple, absorbed in My Father's business. And so priceless were those moments of sharing in the Law that I could scarcely keep track of the time. Nor could I pull Myself away to go looking for My parents. After all, they knew where My heart was, and it should never have entered their minds that I might be elsewhere.

"Nonetheless, it was not right for Me to leave them without any notice, and it did weigh on My heart that she would be distraught. Yet, I had a higher duty and calling to My Heavenly Father—and knew that it must be this way.

"When I spoke the words in Matthew 10, 'He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me,' the incident in the Temple was very much on My mind.

“So many things that have been written in Scripture have layers and layers of meanings, and only with the help of Holy Spirit will you discover them.

“In the end, I did defer to my parents, as a good son should, and we returned home. But I must tell you, My heart ached to share the law and precepts of God with men. Going home was the last thing I wanted to do. For Me, it was a great act of submission to the will of God to obey My parents.

“But for Me, it left an indelible imprint on My heart, and I longed with all that was within Me for the day I could return. It touched My mother and Joseph's hearts, as well. They pondered the connection I had with the Teachers of the Law, and realized there was a mystery and foreshadowing of things to come that had played out before their very eyes.”

Wait On My Timing

May the Lord give us the courage and love to give to Him unceasingly during this season. Amen.

Sometimes, waking up can be really tough...if you know what I mean. This morning was no different, so I pulled a holy rhema card and it said, "Be prudent, be wise, ...wait for My timing and you will be happy." And what that has to do with is, yesterday the Lord's supper readings were about the Rapture again. I was examining my thinking and wondering, all these awesome hints that we are getting, and yet, everyone is talking about all the wonderful things that are coming soon, could they be referring not to the Rapture but to an entirely new way of life that will come with this Tesla energy and med beds? So, I asked Ezekiel, my husband, what is the Lord was saying to you? And he said he got three Rapture readings from the Lord's supper and a rhema card, as well as on our Rhema page. By the way, if you have not yet tried that, please check it out, HeartDwellers.org, go to the Rhema page. And when you click on the button it will bring up a holy saying of encouragement or instruction. Do pray before you click, and you will be shocked at how accurate the words are for your particular situation, a word in season.

Anyway, after Ezekiel told me that, I thought to myself, surely the Rapture is soon. And I was thanking God because I was tired, but thinking, "Lord, there is so much I want to do for you, could you just restore some of my youth? I mused." Then I pulled another card and it said, "Lean on the One who loves you." And so, this morning when I awoke and put on my armor, I was in the kitchen feeling like I was about to die and said, "Lord, I am going to lean on You today". So, when I leaned on Him in the spirit and He became visible and answered me, not visible to the naked eye but visible in the spiritual eye, ok. So, He said, "Can you offer this to Me? The pain and the weakness?" I answered, "Yes, Lord, I offer it to You. But please help me not to be lazy."

He said, "Beloved, this week will be full of trials. You do not have to invent any penances; life will offer them to you daily. Receive these from My hand with great affection and offer them for souls and the state of the world. Contrary to all the positive things that are being said on the truthful channels, you are in a state of war, and things could get out of hand very quickly, which is what the remaining black hats are going to try and do."

But understand, the alliance of nations that have come up against this nefarious force, have made a noticeably big impact and what is left of them is disheveled, a disheveled network that still has nuclear options. Prayer has done more than I could write in a thousand books about this situation. Keep praying.

And remember the Scriptures say that when the Restrainer, that is the Holy Spirit dwelling in every believer, when He is lifted and removed, then will the worst calamities occur.

“What I am saying to you is that there is a war to end all wars on the horizon and the enemy is poised for it. You and all the others who are praying, are holding it back. But to continue with what I was saying a moment ago, you will have many opportunities to offer Me gifts of sacrifice, because at this time, I need them. So be prepared for a challenging week, do not allow yourself to resist, that in itself tires you out. Understand that these sacrifices are for My purposes and receive them from My hand without complaint. This will be a huge gift of intercession for the world.

“Your tension about the Rapture, is only wearing you out. Let go of the anxiety, be expectant but do not allow it to become a pit of anxiety as you have done in the past. By the way, enjoy your flutes, as I enjoy them. Finish the songs that we have written together, you were correct when you told a sister that this gift was given for relaxation and release from the tensions of the day, that is only one of the many benefits.

“The wonderful by product are beautiful songs that edify and lift up others. You know that My fingers are always at work when you apply yourself to music. And I love doing this with you, so enjoy it and others will be edified. There are thousands of musicians in this world because I delight in music, but most of all worship. So do not allow the enemy to put one ounce of guilt on you because you are enjoying making music. It is to My glory that you do so. And if only some of the others in the community would connect with this truth, you would have quite a nice little ensemble. That is kind of a dream I have had, have you guys all together playing music.

“Beloved ones, I inhabit your praises and your music. It is a sweet-smelling sacrifice when you play with Me on your heart. The enemy tries to inspire pride when you play well, but you who belong to Me, you will keep it pure by rejecting his suggestions. This will strengthen you in other areas as well, because vanity and pride are the devil’s favorite tools to draw My Bride away from Me. Reject his suggestions My precious Brides, and we will enjoy a taste of Heaven on Earth together.

“I bless you now My Beloved ones, with strength for the journey of this week, that you may offer Me all the things that normally irritate you, and I will turn them to graces to draw all men to Me. Give thanks in all tribulations, for this is My will for you. Meditate much on My Passion this week, keep Me company as we recall My suffering for mankind. Truly, I adore you.”

Well beloved friends, I was not going to share this with you, but it has been 2 days since I wrote this and I want to tell you, the little things that have come up with members of the community every day, have exposed just how petty, selfish, and critical my nature really is. Oh, I am so ashamed of myself. This is just a heads up to you dear ones. Watch your heart very carefully and do not let one selfish action escape you- definitely correct yourselves in the strongest way. The Lord is exposing how far we have to go to become saints. I cannot remember everything that has happened, but after two days of things not going my way, I realized this is not a brutal sacrifice for Lent, rather it is an exposing of hidden and selfish motives, and they make me feel so dirty and petty, before the Lord.

Thank God for confession and absolution. Thank God for His patience with me when I am tempted to throttle my sister or my brother over some tiny infraction. Well, He has forgiven me, and I am greatly humbled by what I saw about my own nature. Thank You Lord for your forgiveness and for exposing the rawness of my soul. I can hardly believe you love and accept me as I am, when I consider some of the attitudes I have. They must be a stench in Your nostrils. Jesus began, “My Precious, precious Bride, truly these attitudes are not becoming of you and reveal areas where you still need to improve. More of Me, less of the world. More time soaking, less time working. Come into My presence Beloved of My Heart and allow Me to bathe you in My acceptance and peace. Self-hatred is truly a powerful force and that is what Satan loves to use against My vessels unto honor. He seeks to take your ministry from you by continual condemnation. My dearest, I love you to distraction and soon this ugly spirit will no longer have any influence on you. I long for that fast-approaching day. And by the way, I forgive you, go and forgive others, love them as I have loved you”.

Scripture Reveals Mary's Role in the Church 6 of 7

October 22, 2018

Lord, you have opened our hearts and eyes to Your mother's mission. Continue to teach us the hidden beauties of our faith; things that were taken away by men, but that you are restoring through Your grace. Amen.

Well, Dear Heartdwellers. There's a lot going on this week. A lot of prayer. a lot of new prayer. And I just have the deep, deep gut-sense that we MAY be given a little more time. Not three years. But possibly a little more time. The Lord has not spoken to me about that yet. It's just a certain 'settled' feeling I've had for two days. I'm sharing it with you, just so you're aware. We'll see what He has to say, but in no way should we cut back on our prayers and travail for this nation, because this is the critical point. We need to keep that up, and that's highly pleasing to Him. There are a lot of graces that come from travailing prayer, that's for sure.

There's some new music I'm going to be writing that I think will really help us get very deep and close to the Lord.

So, I want to begin by looking into the duality of the Lord's messages, through His actions.

At the Last Supper, the Disciples were already half-way through the Passover meal when Jesus got up from the table, wrapped a towel around His waist, and began to wash His Disciples' feet.

Well, this is odd timing! Normally, when a guest arrives, their feet are washed immediately. So, why in the world would the Lord wait until the middle of the meal to wash their feet?

John 13:2-5 During supper, when the devil had already put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him, Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going back to God, rose from supper. He laid aside his outer garments, and taking a towel, tied it around his waist. Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around him.

What is the obvious meaning of this act? Well, first of all, dirty feet? Coming to this special meal with dirty feet, possibly? A cleansing, even perhaps a spiritual cleansing could be assigned as a metaphor.

But what was the REAL reason He washed the disciple's feet? Were they that dirty? I don't think so.

In the next line, He reveals it. Continuing on in verse 6: He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?" Jesus answered him, "What I am doing you do not understand now, but afterward you will understand." Peter said to him, "You shall never wash my feet." Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no share with me." Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!"

He was a piece of work...lol. Peter was a piece of work!

Jesus said to him, "The one who has bathed does not need to wash, except for his feet, but is completely clean. And you are clean, but not every one of you." For he knew who was to betray him; that was why he said, "Not all of you are clean." John 13:6-11

So, here He eludes to a spiritual cleansing. However, when he sits down, He teaches them the real intention of this humble act.

When he had washed their feet and put on his outer garments and resumed his place, he said to them, "Do you understand what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. John 13:12-15

This was a bold proclamation of what it meant to occupy the office of an Apostle. Man's tendency is to lord it over others; Jesus was demonstrating the heart of one called to lead in the office of Apostle.

This calls to mind when the mother of Zebedee's sons requested that they sit on His right and left hand in the Kingdom.

When the ten heard about this, they were indignant with the two brothers. Jesus called them together and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be your slave--just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many." Matthew 20:24-28

This qualification was so vital for them that He gave them as a memorial, a living example, during His last day with them.

So, now the Lord reveals the true meaning of why He washed the Apostles' feet. These last narratives of the acts of Jesus, at the end of His life, are profoundly meaningful. There is a deeper meaning to each one.

Taking that into account, let's look at what Jesus did before He gave up His Spirit, in the 19th chapter of John:

Near the cross of Jesus stood his mother, his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother there, and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to her, "Woman, behold your son," and to the disciple, "Here is your mother." From that time on, this disciple took her into his home." John 19:25-27

We wonder why none of Jesus' so-called brothers and sisters were at the foot of the Cross? If He had so many brothers and sisters, why weren't they at the foot of the Cross? And why did Jesus have to make provision for His mother? If she had a big family, certainly she'd be provided for. Hadn't she given birth to numerous children, according to other reports? That He had brothers and sisters. Surely, they would take her into their homes.

But again, as in Jesus washing the Disciple's feet, there is a deeper meaning.

To John He said, "Here is your mother." John was the only representative of the Apostles at the foot of the Cross. And when Jesus spoke these words, the deeper meaning was that she would become the mother and protectress of the budding Church. This is also confirmed by her being named as present at Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit, who was her Spouse, descended upon all the Disciples and onlookers, and they spoke supernaturally in different tongues.

Don't we today have church mothers? Women who've been married to pastors, or their children are pastors. And they're highly respected in the church. People go to them for prayer.

So, I asked the Lord, "Do You have anything to add, Lord?"

Jesus began, "There are few on Earth that have the depth of understanding to comprehend who My mother is to them, to the world, and to the Church. The homosexual hierarchy that took over the governance of My Church is largely responsible for this, when they banned women from ministry. It was never My intention that ministry should be only for men. From the very beginning, I made it clear that this cultural taboo on women did not stand in My eyes. Rather, I went out of My way to demonstrate, through example, just how much women meant to Me--beginning with My mother.

"Speaking of which. I would prefer that those on this Channel called you Mother Clare. 'Cause you are no longer a sister; you are a Mother. And I would ask you to sign off as Mother Clare. Never mind the naysayers. I'm not a people pleaser--and you shouldn't be either.

"But going back to this taboo on women ministering. It reflected the culture of those times, where women were suppressed and treated as something owned; rather than as someone equal, but different in purpose. How very unfortunate for men in those days, who did not hearken to the wisdom of their wives!

"For instance, Nabal (whose name means 'Fool') was saved by his wife Abigail when David and his men were on their way to slaughter all the men of his house. She intervened by bringing ample supplies for David's army."

That's in I Samuel 25.

"Pilate was warned by his wife, (in Matthew 27:19). While Pilate was sitting on the judge's seat, his wife sent him this message: 'Don't have anything to do with that innocent man, for I have suffered a great deal today in a dream because of him.' But in his foolishness, wanting to secure his position on Earth, he lost his position in Heaven.

"When I said 'it is not good for man to be alone; I will give him a helpmate', I was not just talking about bearing children and cooking meals. Very often, women have a higher sense of right and wrong, and are more spiritually attuned than men, because their surroundings are protected. Men must fight in the world and associate with all manner of corruption, so they don't always have the luxury of being spiritually attuned. Their lives are lived, for the most part, on a grosser level. Providing and defending.

"However, when they make the choice to separate from this morass of filth, and hearken to My Words, they are exceptionally receptive.

"But I knew all this from the beginning, and made the female to also be a confidant. A soft and tender heart to calm the day's chaos and comfort the stressed-out mind, and even offer wisdom from her heart. This has made them exceptionally well-suited to ministry, providing they never step away from the righteous husband's covering and wisdom.

"But the culture was still rather barbaric in those days, and women were not thought of as I think of them. This is why I made it a point to turn men's minds towards the wisdom of a righteous woman. If you want to see the demeaning attitude right up front, recall how the men reacted to Mary Magdalene when she told them she had seen Me. I sent her to tell them, but because of her gender, they looked down on her.

And this is from the Scripture: On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: 'The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.'?" Then they remembered his words.

When they came back from the tomb, they told all these things to the Eleven and to all the others. It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them who told this to the apostles. But they did not believe the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense. Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. Luke 24:1-11

When Jesus rose early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had driven seven demons. She went and told those who had been with him and who were mourning and weeping. When they heard that Jesus was alive and that she had seen him, they did not believe it. Mark 16:9-11

Jesus continued, "The testimony of women was considered weak and unreliable, and I saw this as something that had to be changed. So, I deliberately chose women for some of the most important messages, such as: I had risen from the dead. Such as: "I am the Messiah..." "I am he who you speak of..." to the Samaritan woman."

Well, at this point, I had been busy looking up Scriptures as the Lord would put an incident on my heart. And I would go and look up the Scriptures for it. So that it would be fleshed out for you.

But I want to share with you some notes that I ran across, from an article by a lady named Barbara Leonhard. Who is a Franciscan, from Franciscan Media.

LOL this one's really funny!

She says, "Jewish culture in the first century was decidedly patriarchal. The daily prayers of Jewish men included this prayer of thanksgiving: 'Praised be God that he has not created me a woman.' I really got a kick out of that...!"

"A woman's place was thought to be in the home. Women were responsible for bearing the children, rearing them and maintaining a hospitable home. Men were not to greet women in public, women should never leave the home except to go to the synagogue." Or the well...

"Marrying young, a woman was almost always under the protection and authority of a man: her father, her husband or a male relative of her husband if she was a widow.

"Women had little access to property or inheritance, except through a male relative."

Well now, she says that. But I've heard a different story. Property was passed through the women. Well, I don't know.

"Any money a woman earned belonged to her husband. Men could legally divorce a woman for almost any reason, simply by handing her a writ of divorce. A woman, however, could not divorce her husband.

"In the area of religious practice, women were in many ways overlooked. Men were required to pray certain prayers daily, but women were not. While the study of Scripture was regarded as extremely important for men, women were not allowed to study the sacred texts.

"Rabbi Eliezer, a first-century teacher, is noted for saying, 'Rather should the word of the Torah be burned than entrusted to a woman.'"

How terrible! That's really terrible... And also, the other thing is, I know that Mary was acquainted with the Scriptures, because of the Temple, where she grew up. So, that's not altogether true.

"At the Temple in Jerusalem, women were restricted to an outer court, separated from the men and not permitted to read aloud. They were not allowed to bear witness in a religious court.

"But Jesus defies these expectations in at least four ways.

Jesus Speaks With Women in Public

"He refuses to treat women as inferior. He recognizes their dignity, their desires and their gifts.

He steps forward in a crowd of mourners to speak with the widow at Nain, and to call her son back to life (Luke 7:11-17).

"He cures a woman who had been crippled for 18 years, laying hands on her in the Temple and saying, 'Woman, you are set free of your infirmity' (Luke 13:12). When the leader of the synagogue becomes indignant that Jesus has healed a woman on the Sabbath, (oh boy...) Jesus uses a title of particular dignity for her, 'daughter of Abraham'. (Luke 13:16).

"While the expression 'son of Abraham' was often used to indicate that a male Jew was recognized as bound by covenant to God, women had never been called 'daughters of Abraham.' With this title, Jesus recognizes this woman as having equal worth.

"In John 4:4-42, Jesus ignores two codes of behavior. He initiates a conversation with a foreigner, a Samaritan. In addition, this foreigner is also a woman. Her surprise is included in the narrative: 'How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?' (John 4:9).

"Jesus not only speaks with her but also enters into a prolonged dialogue, a dialogue which recognizes and honors her thirst for religious truth. Ultimately, he reveals his identity as the Messiah."

Wow! He didn't do that with anyone until that time with Peter. When the Lord said, "Who do YOU say that I am?"

"When his disciples return, they are clearly uneasy with Jesus' behavior. John includes the questions they are afraid to verbalize: 'What are you looking for? Why are you talking with her?' (John 4:27).

"The Gospel writer does not hesitate to conclude the story with a comment that, although in Jewish thought a woman's testimony was not trustworthy, here the Samaritan woman's excited words are heard and acted upon. 'Many of the Samaritans of that town began to believe in him because of the word of the woman who testified' on his behalf (John 4:39).

"Jesus refuses to view women as unclean or especially deserving of punishment. Women who were menstruating or persons who had any flow of blood were considered ritually unclean. In this condition, women were not allowed to participate in most religious rituals.

Anything or anyone she touched was deemed unclean. A woman in this state who had a flow of blood for 12 years (Luke 8:43-48).

"The Lord, on the way to heal the synagogue official's daughter, this frightened, suffering woman, who has been ill and consequently isolated for years, touches Jesus cloak. Jesus turns his attention from the synagogue official to the woman. He wants to know who touched his garment. By religious norms, the woman's touch--even of his cloak--rendered Jesus unclean.

"If the woman expects him to be angry with her for approaching, she is greatly surprised. He says nothing of her ritual impurity, but instead addresses her as 'Daughter,' says that her faith has saved her and tells her to go in peace (8:48)." Isn't that beautiful?

"Jesus recognizes the dignity of women in situations that seem by ritual law to demand judgment. For example, the sinful woman who anoints Jesus (Luke 7:36-50) and that of the woman caught in adultery (John 8:3-11).

"In both cases., He sees the person as someone deserving compassion. In Luke's narrative of the anointing woman, after Jesus is touched and anointed by a woman who is a recognized sinner, we hear the expected reaction from Simon, his host. This prominent religious leader, a Pharisee, is dismayed and says, 'If this man were a prophet, he would know who and what sort of woman this is who is touching him, that she is a sinner.' (Luke 8:39).

"Not only does Jesus tell the woman that her sins are forgiven, but he also uses her actions and the love which prompted them to teach his offended host! Jesus' question is pointed: 'Do you see this woman?' (Luke 8:44).

And He lists the things that should have been done in greeting him at the door that they didn't do--like wash His feet. But that she now is making up for with her tears and oil.

"Jesus clearly teaches that the one who keeps all the rules is not necessarily the better person. 'Her many sins have been forgiven; hence, she has shown great love.' (Luke 8:47).

"Third, Jesus steps over expected boundaries between men and women by his acceptance of women as disciples. Unlike rabbis of his day, Jesus taught women about Scripture and his way of love. Matthew tells of Jesus' mother and brothers asking to speak to him. 'He said in reply..., "Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?" And stretching out his hand toward his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers"' (Matthew 12:46-50). His use of both masculine and feminine words clearly indicates that some of his disciples were women.

"The familiar story of Martha and Mary in Luke 10:38-42 Jesus' acceptance and blessing of Mary's desire to learn. She is described as one who "sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak" (Luke 10:39). This is the typical position of the male disciple. To sit at the feet of a rabbi meant that a person was one of his disciples.

"Martha, on the other hand, takes the expected woman's role of providing hospitality. Perhaps she herself thinks it improper for Mary to act as a disciple. Regardless, Jesus will not deprive Mary of her opportunity. 'Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her.' (Luke 10:42).

"Of particular interest is the fact that Jesus not only taught women, but some women traveled with him and ministered to him. (Luke 8)

"Mark, too, says of the women present at Jesus' crucifixion, "These women had followed him when he was in Galilee and ministered to him" (15:41). This picture of women disciples is astounding, given that Jewish women at this time were not to learn the Scriptures or even to leave their households.

"Not only did Jesus have women disciples, but the Gospel writers also assure us that they were prominent recipients of Jesus' self-revelation. Jesus tells the Samaritan woman at the well that he is the Messiah.

"In all of the Gospels, women disciples are the first witnesses to the Resurrection. Mary Magdalene sees Jesus but is not believed (Mark 16:11). In John's account (20:11-18), she recognizes Jesus when she hears herself called by name, testifying to the close relationship they had. Jesus tells her to go to the other disciples and tell them, 'I have seen the Lord.'

lol. Oh, boy. I love the way that was done in "Jesus of Nazareth." Great actress delivered those lines. Very, very convincing.

So, I don't mean to belabor the point, but you have to understand that women were WAY looked down upon in that time.

Let me see, I'm going to - oh yes. There's one more point I want to make here. This is very interesting that she make this point.

"A now-familiar parable that Jesus told about a woman captures it best. 'The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed with three measures of wheat flour until the whole batch was leavened' (Matthew 13:33). A woman, not a man, is mixing leaven with wheat until the whole batch is leavened and the Kingdom of Heaven is produced. How much clearer could the Lord be? We are Mothers in the Church, our roles are distinctly tempered by our gender, yet there should be nothing appropriate to caring for the flock that women be denied to have..."

...even such as the priesthood. I think that was my line...

Jesus continues, "In all of this, My people, understand I was bringing women up to the status of equals but with different assignments and missions in life. And I chose for My disciple, Mary of Nazareth. She is the model of discipleship from beginning to end. Her faith, stamina, and courage; her belief in what God was doing. Her belief in My mission and her cooperation. Her final sacrifice of giving Me into the hands of sinful men.

"Her life after My ascension into Heaven, her life in Heaven and her mission on Earth. For she was faithful with the talent given her; therefore, in Heaven, she is given much more. The offering of Me into the hands of evil-doers for the salvation of sinners brought her into a coredemptive position with Me, just as I expect all of My Disciples on this Earth to also join their lives to Mine in seeking the salvation of the world."

And I just want to make a point here. JESUS is the One who redeemed us. And she acknowledges that Jesus is her Redeemer in a prophetic word, just after she'd become pregnant. But when we join our hands, our lives - everything that we have - to the Lord's work... We are co-redemptors. We are helping in that work of redemption. Jesus did the work and finished it. But someone's got to deliver it!

And then the Lord went on to say, "Who is My mother, My brother, My sister? Those who do the will of the Father. And they are your mothers and brothers and sisters, as well. But her mission, which she executed faithfully, was yet the most important of all: to give birth and raise the Father's only begotten Son. And that puts her in the unique position of also mothering the Church.

"That is why I said 'Woman' to her rather than 'Mother'--which is what I said to John, who was the only Apostle at the foot of the Cross. For truly, she had now become his mother, as well as the Church's mother.

"Eve was the physical mother of all mankind, but she lost the Kingdom through sin. Mary is the new Eve, who cooperated in redeeming sinful man by her obedience even to the end, making it possible for the Kingdom to be regained. Her heart is one with the Father's, and to this end, she has embraced her eternity and chosen to spend it bringing the Sons and Daughters of Abraham into the New Covenant and beyond--into the espousal relationship that is so very dear to Me.

"She has only My best interests at heart, as many of you have already discovered. She is a worthy and holy mother to the offspring of My Father. For it is written, 'No one is able to come to Me unless the Father, the One having sent Me, draws him. And I will raise him up in the last day.'

"The journey beginning when one comes to Me, and walking through life with Me to the end, is a long one. And it is her heart to accompany you on the way."

And that was the end of the Lord's message about that.

I would like to add that receiving and sharing messages every day with you, precious family, is a tremendous amount of work for me at 72, almost 73. But my heart is to seek His face every day and bring you fresh manna. With all my heart, I want to see you in the arms of our Beloved, and hearing Him clearly. Living for Him in His strength.

In doing this, it has become necessary to have 5 full-time employees. I very much appreciate any donation you send to us, and I want to let you know that what we need the most is monthly donors who are faithful to uphold this work and all it requires of us.

The Lord is very strict with us. And not many people would understand this. As soon as our bills and salaries are paid, we must give everything left over away to the poor. That's pretty amazing. We cannot have savings, we cannot tuck it away and save it for next week; we must live from week to week and give everything else to the poor.

Recently that meant purchasing jackets and boots for all the children on the Taos Indian Reservation. They have a rule there that no-one can wear used clothing. So, every year we need to buy them new clothes.

So, I am asking you, dear ones. If these messages have changed your life and brought you closer to the Lord, would you please consider our needs on a monthly basis?

He who gives to a servant of God, receives a servant of God's reward. And all that you have done to get Our Lord's words out and support us will result in your reward being the very same as mine. The reason being that I could never do what I do without your prayers. Never in a million years could I do this alone! And that is why you will receive a reward for being a part of this ministry. Your prayers, dear ones, have raised me up off the sick bed more times than you know. The attack here is ferocious, but the Lord triumphs especially when you gather together and pray for us.

One more thing I want to mention. Please be aware that Christmas has become a materialistic holiday that does very little to honor the Lord's birth. So, when you are planning for Christmas, please remember the Lord and the poor, and try not to make it an occasion of taking in everything the world has to offer. I have been so guilty of that. But make an offering to Him of your love by putting Him in the center of your celebrations, and even remembrance of the poor around the world.

I love and pray for you every day. Ezekiel and I both pray for you every day. And am so very blessed by your feedback. Thank you for staying with us. And may the Lord bless you through His words.

America Behind the Scene

April 10th, 2021

May the Lord's peace be with you family. Amen.

Please forgive my absence, I have had a rough week with fibromyalgia, and I have found it exceedingly difficult to concentrate. I think it is a suffering for the Divine Mercy Novena, which we are in the middle of right now, it ends on Sunday, the first Sunday after Easter. And it is a nine-day prayer cycle for the world, different intentions each day. It is an immensely powerful novena.

I have some intel to share with you and please take timing issues with a grain of salt because so much misinformation is being put out there, nobody can really trust the details. I wanted to get this out of the way so we could stay strictly on spiritual things in my next message. I know there is a great deal of confusion in the minds of some, wondering why President Trump has not been reinstated publicly yet. I want to assure you, it is coming. The military has all it needs to uphold the constitution and put the choice of We The People, in the president's office. They have audited the authentic watermarked ballots that revealed that the only state that was for Biden was the District of Columbia. Believe it or not, New York, and California were for Trump. Right now, Jim Carey and James Wood, are playing the part of Biden- It has got to be funny! It was Jim Carey that tripped and fell on the stairs, and he has a background with stunts. I believe Biden has already been executed for his crimes against humanity and torturing and raping children. It is so horrific, that I get sick at just the mention of what the army is revealing in the tunnels that are all over the world, not just in America. Dear ones, they are taking hundreds of body bags filled with the body parts of children out of these trafficking tunnels. Under the White House, there were colonies of rats and roaches feeding on human remains.

There is a channel on YouTube, that seems very well connected, Rescue GE is what it is called, and it has been broadcasting the plans to reveal to the public all that has been going on behind the scenes. In their YouTubes they continue to set dates which keep passing us by without any visible events. Now they have not posted anything new for almost three days.

Martial Law and has been in effect for several months. That means that the military is in charge, period. The black hats have hired thugs to cause disruption and rioting when the disclosure of corruption happens, so the white hats are being incredibly careful, not wanting to set off national rioting. I believe they are also threatening to detonate nuclear devices and other weapons of mass destruction, hidden in America, if everything is revealed to the public and the mainstream media is shut down. The military has made great strides in discovering these weapons, but it is obvious that all threats have not been neutralized, or the military would (spill the beans) and give the public the red pill.

Another factor is the fragile state of mind of people. It is my guess that if the information is released too quickly to the public, including the taking down of the mainstream media, some people will lose their minds, it is after all more bizarre than fiction. It seems that the best way to disclose what has been happening is slowly, gradually, little by little over time. What is being said on the channel, I believe, may be put out there to flush out all the retaliatory moves the black hats have planned or have access to, and according to my source that seems to be correct. Three reasons why they cannot disclose everything suddenly, I know you are all waiting for it, I know I am, every day, wondering when is the public broadcasting system going to kick in? And when is the truth going to be revealed? But there are three reasons why they cannot disclose everything, the threat of retaliation is still real, and every time they announce a move, more black hats come to the surface, and are exposed, and the public is so lulled into false narratives that they will go into shock when full disclosure is made, if it is done too suddenly. In the meantime, they are arresting, prosecuting, and executing black hats. I just got an update from our intel source and he told me that the Evergreen container ship that is stuck in the Suez Canal was deliberately thrown off course to be stuck in the canal by hacking into their computer, the computer that guides the ship. The elite Russian, and elite American corps, the Green Berets, etc., and Egyptians, are all cooperating and working together to save these children. I was told that there were about 1,200 children found dead in the containers and 1,300 still alive, according to an Army intel source. They also found weapons of mass destruction on the ship. The captain is singing like a canary and all the other ships stuck in the canal will also be searched. The release of the film, Sound of Freedom, starring Jim Caviezel, which is about trafficking children will not be released until the end of the year. And I would imagine that is to protect the operations that are going on, to find the children in these tunnels because there's still more tunnels, many more tunnels to be taken care of around the world.

Now, moving onto the COVID vaccines: My precious ones, please do not get the vaccine or even let them test you for COVID. As it turns out, the vaccine President Trump took is Hydroxychloroquine and Remdesivir, which is an oral vaccine, and the military is also taking that.

They are not taking Moderna, Astra Zeneca, Johnson & Johnson's Janssen, Pfizer-Biotech -They are not taking that, those are poisons. But there are reports that the testing swabs being used for COVID have a tiny chip in them which becomes implanted in your body and causes sterility, when they swab you, plus there is evidence of Morgellons's disease and other live viruses on the tip of the swab. And this was from a fresh swab that was, the package was opened and examined under a microscope, two of them from this batch, and they both had the same thing, they had Morgellons disease, and live bacteria and a virus on the tip of the swab. Please, do not get tested, those swabs may be loaded. It is possible when the med beds come out that the damage caused by these toxic vaccines may be reversable. And the reason you are seeing this is because the black hats world agenda is to reduce the population tremendously and that is why there's sterility associated with the swabs and the vaccine. And that is the reason why they are doing this is because they want to reduce the planetary population.

Ok, I have given you all the icky stuff that is going on, my next message, I hope, will be much better. I just wanted to dispel any confusion in your hearts and minds about what is truly going on behind the scenes. Mainstream media has access to a lot of this information but refuses to publish it. It would not be right if I did not ask the Lord to speak to us. So, Lord, do you have something to share?

Jesus began, "Let us begin with how much I love you, My Brides. And I need your comfort during these times. I inhabit these soldiers and must deal with the torment they suffer after finding these unspeakable atrocities. Some of their lives are shattered by what they see, and they have to go into recovery. They try to be brave, but the images stay in their minds and torment them. It is truly a disgrace and horrendous acts of crime against the innocent.

"Many parents will be getting the sad news that their children are dead. Others will have to deal with severely traumatized children that need medical attention. The med beds will help to heal and restore the minds of these little ones. They are already being used to that affect and are showing hopeful results. You cannot imagine the wrath of Satan that has been taken out on these innocents. Those who have seen the carnage have seen inside Satan's mind. This is what he lives for.

"What Clare has given you is substantially accurate information. She has culled out much and only stuck to the bare bones fact. Now that you know this, I need your prayers. There are still tunnels with children all around the world, yet to be discovered. My Spirit is upon those soldiers and I am leading them. Pray for them, dear ones, they are so traumatized by the cruelty and carnage, that it is something that will never be totally overcome. Pray for them.

"And what Clare has told you about the vaccines is accurate. Take no part in the testing of or the vaccines. The one vaccine that works is the oral one the President took, or you can rely on Me to heal you. Most of the strains are nothing more severe than the flu which thousands of people die of every year. When you pray for one another, if nothing changes then recognize it as a burden and a fast offering to set more children free and preserve your country.

"The dreams about the Chinese living in your country are very real warnings. Yeah, Ezekiel had another one and we will probably publish that tomorrow. "There is so much more going on behind the scenes", the Lord continued, "that very few know about and the danger is quite real. Only your prayers can stop the occupation of America. Your country is literally in your praying hands. I am coming very soon and what will take place afterwards has been written in Revelation. Pray now for what is to happen later. Pray, pray, pray. Imagine your culture wiped out. Imagine your homeland occupied by foreigners, a totally foreign culture. This is indeed a sad sight. You do not know what it is like to not have a country to belong to. The plight of immigrants is very grim. What this nation will suffer is very much like what the nation did to the Native American peoples when they took their land from them. This is why I have called for deeper repentance.

“When I return to rule there will be equity. I will restore to each one according to what is right, but until that time the earth will be full of strife and confusion. You have not long to wait My dear ones, you have not long. Those of you who are raptured will be part of the earth’s restoration and you will behold justice being done to all peoples and you will all live together in peace. That is My Promise to you. Look forward to Heaven, My Brides for those of you who are staying, look forward to new equipping for your spiritual journey until I return. My blessing is upon all who read or listen to this message and I would ask you to correspond to what is in this message and to use it, to pray, and to be ready, because I am coming soon.”

Now, that was His message. What I wanted to add to that is that I have got more confirmations about the Rapture. Here on the Refuge we have people having dreams, and we’re having dreams about Chinese occupation, we’re having dreams about the Rapture and the Tribulation, and all I can tell you is it seems like between now and the fall something may happen, and if it doesn’t happen in the fall it may happen in the spring, but the Rapture is very, very, very close, so please, have your lamps filled and your wicks trimmed and be ready, for the Lord is coming soon, much sooner than anyone really believes. The Lord bless you, dear ones. Pray for us.

Thank you.

Scripture Reveals Mary's Role in the Church 7 of 7

April 8, 2019

Thank You, Lord Jesus, for sharing the immense treasure of Your Mother with us. May we always listen for her counsel and appeal to her for intercession. Amen.

I'm still here! Dear Family.

So, the Lord tells me what to do with my time, and today I was going to start with music. And show you how effective the mass readings are from the missal. The Sunday missal. What did I open to but 'Feed My sheep. Tend to My sheep. Feed My lambs.' That was the mass readings. I had a little bit of a thought that maybe today would not be about music.

And Carol has wanted me to finish the series on Mary, the Mother of the Church. And I was keen to do that, too. So, here we are.

Dear Family, we have looked at the Scriptural basis for Our Lady's many roles, and her entire life has become a model of holiness for us. She, in fact, was the very first believer. And even more than that, an Apostle. One who is sent, to come into the world and prepare a place in her womb for the Messiah, whom God sent forth from her womb.

All throughout her life, events happened that parallel the events of our own lives, the many trials we have in following and sharing Jesus with the world. She was first to believe. To prophecy His role to the nations. To announce to men. To comfort and nurture Him, even as we Brides are called to do. To understand the greatness of His role to mankind.

For when she served at the Temple, she learned all the Scriptures about the Messiah and eagerly awaited His coming. Her trip to her cousin Elizabeth was not just out of curiosity. She wanted to be present when this great prodigy was born. For a woman sterile for 50 years had suddenly been blessed with a child, the harbinger of the Messiah whom she carried in her womb.

She knew she would be suspected of adultery and possibly stoned. But she put her trust in God, knowing that nothing could happen to her or the Messiah in her womb. She bore the insults and calumny hurled at her when she returned to Nazareth, and even at the foot of the Cross when the soldiers mocked her for being a poor mother. She witnessed the miracles scattered all through His young life.

Anne Catherine Emmerick, who worked with archeologists to discover critical sites and treasures, told the story of how when they were passing through the mountains on the way to Egypt, a band of robbers who lived in a local cave suddenly surrounded them. They were awestruck by the presence that surrounded the Holy Family, so they did no harm, but invited them to the shelter of their cave to spend the night.

It is said that the Blessed Mother bathed baby Jesus and gave the water from his bath to the mother of a child that was leprous, living in the cave. When she bathed her child in the water, the leprosy completely disappeared. Later, at the foot of the Cross, that same baby who had grown into a man, was being crucified beside Jesus. And he was the good thief, to whom Jesus said, "Truly I tell you. Today you shall be with Me in Paradise."

The life of Jesus was studded with these kinds of miracles that were never recorded, but in Heaven there will be a playback--and I can't wait!!!

But seriously, dear family. Even as it is written, "There are many more things that Jesus did. If all of them were written down, I suppose that not even the world itself would have space for the books that would be written." John 21:25

Yet, I believe there is no need for all those things to be written. The need is for salvation and faithfulness to our Lord. Personal holiness. And for that, what is written is more than enough. There is also the danger of curiosity getting the best of us and reading 'epistles' that supposedly came from the Apostles. None of this is important, dear ones. We have what we need. And we have Jesus and His Holy Spirit to guide us. And Father God to worship. What more could we want?

The night before He suffered, He washed the Apostle's feet as a lesson to them that they, too, must go and do likewise; washing the feet of others. He continually used metaphors and examples to illustrate a truth. When He spoke to John from the Cross, I believe that His words had a deeper meaning than what they appeared to be on the surface.

"When Jesus saw His mother and the disciple whom He loved standing nearby, He said to His mother, 'Woman, here is your son.' Then He said to the disciple, 'Here is your mother.' So from that hour, this disciple took her into his home...." John 19:26-27.

The Lord was again pointing to the role Mary would have when He departed. She instructed Luke and gave him accounts of things that none of the other apostles knew. She was present in the upper room. Her discernment was like none other, because she had lived her entire life with the Son of God. She was given the grace of baptism at conception, so Jesus could inhabit a thoroughly cleansed vessel.

And now she is being appointed the gentle mother of His Church, whom apostles sought out for deeper understanding and insight. And John, who was very special to Jesus, was placed in the unique position of caring for her needs. So many miss the scope of significance that Jesus portrays in the Scriptures by simple parables. This, and the wedding at Cana, are again examples of Jesus making clear to us His mother's role in the Church.

Dear ones, Mary was the very first disciple. And as such, she embodies all the attributes of all believers for all times. She stands as the preeminent example of what a believer can expect from life. And here, in her death, is the perfect ending.

One site in Ephesus has been venerated as the house Mary lived in for over 11 years after her Son's resurrection. It is ancient tradition that John the Beloved disciple built this house for Mary and that it was the place of her dormition and ascension into Heaven.

This is partially attested to by an Augustinian nun, Anne Catherine Emmerick, who was used for archeological digs and had a remarkably accurate gift of locating sacred locations. She is the one who was shown where Mary's house was and described many of the details, down to the shape and size of the rooms, as well as the location of high up high windows. And the size and shape of bricks. Soon afterwards it was located, and the local people attested to the fact that it indeed was her house, and they came on pilgrimage every year.

Isn't it interesting? The mountain where Noah's ark was found was called Doomsday Mountain and known to be connected to Noah and the flood long before anyone found the boat.

And here is Mary's house, being respected and venerated by the people in the area. And the same here. Simple folk carried on the tradition that this was the place where Mary fell asleep in the Lord, called the dormition. And then was assumed up into Heaven after her death.

Now, there are some people who say that she went into dormition in Jerusalem. That is an interesting take on it. But the Church has a lot of archeological evidence, and they have transferred the blessing of the place of her departure from Jerusalem to Ephesus, to this house.

And she was given an option, it is written by the Church Fathers, of not having to die, by her own Son. But she chose to experience death, even as He did.

Dear Family, of this we can be sure. Some day we will rise out of our graves and be assumed into Heaven just as she was. How perfect is this witness, from birth to death! Our Lady was given extraordinary prerogatives to demonstrate to all Christians the gifts we would yet experience for our faithfulness.

She was immaculately conceived, pre-figuring the baptism of John to wash away the sin nature embedded in the blood, from Adam onward. And raised from the dead prefiguring the Rapture. How beautifully she lived this exemplary life of the ideal Christian and the rewards bestowed upon them. Even to the point that in Heaven she is graced with the highest rank below the Godhead, for her faithfulness on Earth. And by some, she is called the Second Eve. As a reward, she's been given untold numbers of angels to execute the will of the Father and aid us in our journey home.

Dear Lord, thank you so much for this marvelous illustration, from birth to death, of what the Christian life should be and the rewards that come with it.

Jesus began, "My Dove, you have connected the dots and found the great treasure hidden from the arrogant and learned. This poor, third-world village girl has proven to all that there is no other requirement for holiness than obedience to their state in life. She was a queen when sent to Earth, but under the guise of a little nobody.

"Yet the priests recognized in her a soul predestined by God to some very important mission. It was not her brilliance that earned her this recognition, but her extreme littleness and fidelity to her duties in the Temple and the home. She was nothing to look at, Clare, unless your spiritual eyes were open. And then her beauty was stunningly evident.

"What I gave to Carol was correct; her connection to the Father was never broken from birth onwards. And neither was Mine. Because of her immaculate conception, she didn't fight the same temptations that easily ensnare an unbaptized soul. But do not suppose for one moment that she was not tried in virtue. "Her life was a continual offering, dying to herself. Though her desires did not deviate from Mine, the evil ones tempted her mercilessly. Yet her unbroken communion with the Father upheld her in all trials. She knew her life was a mission to Earth for all generations and all peoples. And it meant everything to her, to the point that personal preference did not play a role in her day-to-day life. It was always what the Father intended for her that she would set about to do, with all her heart.

"Now she is your example, My people. And you can surmise from her example that in Heaven you will be given a greater mission to fulfill on Earth, if you are faithful with what I have assigned to you now. I want you to venerate her. I want you to imitate her. I want you to live as though your spirit is eternally connected to the Father's, because indeed it is. It provides for your endless supply of grace for each and every moment of the day.

"And so, My dear ones who for the first time are encountering My true mother. I wish for you to put away all the foolish lies fed to various men to become doctrine in churches that are not My very own. Put away these lies and welcome her into your home. For truly, she is your mother as well, and she will guide and counsel you in the ways of holiness if you listen very closely for her voice."

I have experienced her voice many times. It's so gentle and tender. But there's a book called The Imitation of Christ put out by Catholic Book Publishing. By Alexander deRouville. There are two books, The Imitation of Mary. But there's only one that really reflects her counsel. I highly recommend you get it. I use it for a rhema almost every day.

"Just as in the days of My birth, she has been sent to bring you closer to Me. Because this truly is a familial relationship, and she truly is the Mother of the Bride."

"My dear ones, I stooped to enter the womb of this precious one, chosen by the Father. You should have no shame in stooping to pass through her doorway to come to Me. In this way you will demonstrate My humility in coming to you."

Another Chinese Occupation Dream

April 12th, 2021

The joy of the Lord be with you all dear Heartdwellers. Father Ezekiel had a dream recently and after discernment knew it was from the Lord. Ezekiel began, I was in New York, it was very different, like a countryside instead of what we know of New York City. There were no skyscrapers and bustling city lights or traffic jams. The rubble and devastation that had taken place at one time, had been covered over by green grass and vegetation. It was obvious that it had been this way for years.

There were trees and plants, and a beautiful river, it was fresh and new. The flora, fauna and flowers had all come back. I remember that by the river was the only place I felt true comfort and peace, and Mother Clare and I were living in the area. There was a broad built Chinese man who was really friendly and cordial and while he was talking, I was thinking I'd better get back to Mother as we were living in what looked like a very simple greenhouse.

We were surrounded by Chinese people, and Mother and I were the only Caucasians within miles. They were all very nice and hospitable, but in no way did it look like New York City, it was flat and all the mountains were gone. The Appalachians, the Poconos and the Smoky Mountain Ranges were no more, they were completely leveled.

I remembered in Isaiah 40, verse 4 it says, "Every valley shall be raised up, every mountain and hill made low, the rough ground shall become level, the rugged places a plain."

Obviously, this was some point in the future. These were people of the earth; they had planted a rice paddy and everything had gone back in time to where it was centuries ago. There was no modern technology and everything was clean including the air. I wondered if I was still in America, but the Chinese man verified that I was.

Somehow, I knew that a massive earthquake or event had happened to bring those three ginormous mountain ranges down and leveled them. This was probably a few years after the devastation. It was all so very real; I felt trapped in this dream and couldn't get out for hours. The women were slight and petite and they existed like families that lived a long time ago. There was no technology, no cars, they used oxen to plow crops and harvested the rice by hand.

I tried to visit where Greenwich Village use to be, and there was nothing to be found so I went up North, when I got there it was cloudy and very cold with glaciers, it felt like the arctic and not just above New York City. There was a Chinese man standing in front of a huge glacier that curled at the top like a wave and his expression was one of concern. We were near Niagara Falls where the Canadian border would have been.

The man by the glacier communicated that it only took a few short years, after the devastation, for the area to start regenerating and coming back to life. To preserve this renewal, they live as they did centuries ago, almost primitive, yet organized. I felt a great peace there. The age of the community was from 17 to 51 years old. There were no babies or senior citizens.

The houses were made of plexiglass, like long, narrow hot houses. These greenhouses stored harvested crops to be used for seedlings and for food to sustain us. I was thinking this is New York, how in the world do they stay warm? It never got cold there, the climate had changed, it was at the coolest 60 degrees. It was a very mild climate, and yet a few hundred miles to the North was this massive glacier which was clearly moving. The climate had warmed up so much, that the ice was rapidly melting. The man in front of the glacier was afraid because the ice was moving by inches every day. He was like a village elder and was very wise and concerned that the excess water could harm the community and do major damage.

I never caught sight of any military or police, I saw horses, mules, goats, chickens and hand tools. People worked hard by the sweat of their brow and had managed to carve out a living in this primitive, yet productive and peaceful environment. And that was the end of Father Ezekiel's dream.

This dream reminds me of the movie 'The Village' which came out in 2004. The Village seems to be set in a New England agrarian community in the early 1800s, whose residents eke out their livelihood based on what they can grow. They are a protected and self-sustaining village, similar to an Amish community living cut off from the outside world.

I am reminded of Romans 12:2, “Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is – His good, pleasing and perfect will.”

As followers of Christ, we have been chosen, hand-picked for royal priesthood, for His own possession, that we may exult Him who has called us out of the darkness of this world and into His marvelous light. We are not of the world, just as our Lord God is not of the world, but He has sent us into the world so that the Light of Christ will shine on all around us, so that we can help deliver our brothers and sisters from sorrow, sadness and every bondage, that they may be redeemed and added to the Kingdom of God.

May the Lord bless you and keep you dear Heartdwellers.

April 13th and 15th were both Musicals.

The man in front of the glacier was afraid because the ice was moving by inches every day. He was like a village elder and was very wise and concerned that the excess water could harm the community and do major damage.

I never caught sight of any military or police, I saw horses, mules, goats, chickens and hand tools. People worked hard by the sweat of their brow and had managed to carve out a living in this primitive, yet productive and peaceful environment. And that was the end of Father Ezekiel's dream.

This dream reminds me of the movie 'The Village' which came out in 2004. The Village seems to be set in a New England agrarian community in the early 1800s, whose residents eke out their livelihood based on what they can grow. They are a protected and self-sustaining village, similar to an Amish community living cut off from the outside world.

I am reminded of Romans 12:2, “Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is – His good, pleasing and perfect will.”

As followers of Christ, we have been chosen, hand-picked for royal priesthood, for His own possession, that we may exult Him who has called us out of the darkness of this world and into His marvelous light. We are not of the world, just as our Lord God is not of the world, but He has sent us into the world so that the Light of Christ will shine on all around us, so that we can help deliver our brothers and sisters from sorrow, sadness and every bondage, that they may be redeemed and added to the Kingdom of God.

May the Lord bless you and keep you dear Heartdwellers.

Underground Utopia

May the Lord's grace and peace be with you all dear Heartdwellers. I woke up this morning after having a very significant dream and subsequent vision, right on the heels of the dream. I was in an underground community and people were coming to us in a state of confusion, bewilderment and exhaustion. A woman came up to me asking for help as her pants were dirty and very soiled. Her hair was disheveled and she looked borderline emaciated. I turned to my fellow brother who had a clipboard in his hand and was excellent at organization. He resembled Thomas in 'The Chosen' series and was extremely efficient.

I asked him to have someone bring food for this woman and could he arrange a place for her to sleep. He said, "Sure," and then he was looking around at all the people who were coming to our community, as if taking it all in, and said, "Just think Elisabeth, only a few short years ago we were waiting for the Rapture and now look at us." I immediately replied, "What year is this?" He started laughing and said, "You don't know what year this is?" I shot back, "Humor me." He said, "It's 2025." I thought "Whoa.... really?" I was deep in thought thinking that meant the Rapture would have been in 2022 and we were near the mid-Tribulation period, when I suddenly realized that the woman next to me needed my attention, as we were on our way to a makeshift mop sink to wash out her clothing.

In my thoughts, I asked the Lord would He rapture His Bride in 2022? and then I heard the words, 'The Acceptable Year of the Lord.' In Scripture, this phrase is found in Isaiah 61:1-3, "The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me to preach good tidings to the poor; He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound; to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn, to console those who mourn in Zion, to give them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He may be glorified."

At this point, I came out of the dream and was meditating on and trying to absorb how realistic and symbolic the dream was, when I saw the numbers 222 on a clock flash across my mind and then the 222 was replaced by 2022. I quickly reached for my Bible as Luke Chapter 3, verses 4-6 consumed my thoughts, "As is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet: "A voice of one calling in the desert, 'Prepare the way for the Lord, make straight paths for Him. Every valley shall be filled in, every mountain and hill made low. The crooked roads shall become straight, the rough ways smooth. And all mankind will see God's Salvation."

This reminds me of Father Ezekiel's dream that he had just two days ago about New York when three gigantic mountain ranges, the Appalachians, the Poconos and the Smoky Mountains had been leveled to the ground and made flat.

Dear Family, the Lord is very serious about preparing the way for the Rapture and making ready His Church by uniting His Church with brotherly love and compassion for one another. Two weeks in a row our community mass readings were about The Last Supper and the Lord instructing us to "Love one another as I have loved you."

Let us take these words of our Lord to heart dear ones.

May an abundance of His blessings and guidance be upon us.

In The Storm

Prophetic Song about the Sequence of Events in the Rapture

When the mountains shake the seas, then You'll come to rescue me, for Your love will not be shaken in the storm.

When we're shattered to the core, in the dreaded crypt of war, the hearts of men will fail them in the storm.

With the piercing trumpet's cry, lightning rips through crimson skies, and all who have been waiting will arise.

Vindication fills the skies, clouds of saints ascend on high, as the King in all His grandeur takes His Bride.

In the tattered robes of war, those left standing at the Door will weep in Outer Darkness...in the Storm.

Now this absence of the Light, it will set the lost aright
as they cry aloud for answers...in the Storm.

So despite the bolted Door, be repentant and implore, for His Mercy will restore you in the Storm.

So trim your lamp, tend to your light. It's not too late to get it right,
He's standing here beside you, take His hand.

For He's coming at an hour...you know not when.

I tried, I tried. We tried to tell you. We tried to no avail.

To no avail...

You Are Your Brother's Keeper

March 21st, 2021

The Lord bless you, dear Heart Dwellers. Well, in this week before May, May the first, there are assignments that have been landing, from the evil one, and so we need to be extra vigilant. We have a beautiful community of souls who are deeply committed to following the Lord and serving one another. Truly it is a joy for us to be together and see our individual ministries growing. However, Satan is watching us, and he is not a happy camper. Why? Because we are living in brotherly concord, serving one another, embracing our God and His truth every day, and impacting souls around the world.

We are growing, Holy Spirit is expanding us and wanting the teachings to get to the furthest corner of the world. How beautiful that is. But along with the expansion comes the enemy's attack to keep us confined and hopefully from his perspective, turning inward attacking one another. I have said it before, we fill up on God so we can spill over on others in ministry. Whether we are called to a specific ministry or just called to the ministry of the elect to give our witness, we are vessels unto honor that receive from the Lord and in turn pour out on others.

When Satan wants to destroy a ministry, he works from the inside out. He casts shadows and judgments over the leadership. He stirs up pride that wants to buck every move of the leader who is trying to be faithful to God. If he can stir resentment and judgment against the leaders, he has a particularly good chance of destroying the budding work of God.

He reads each of us like a book. He knows our preferences and the way we think. He knows when we are lazy and want to do it our way, so he inspires criticism against the one who is leading in the vision the Lord has given him. He loves to inspire overwhelm to give us excuses as to why we did not do something we were asked to do. I try extremely hard not to overwhelm you guys, but each of you has your own ambitions that drive you to overwhelm, and Satan knows just how that works so he sets it up. And there I was just talking to the community members; they are so conscientious that sometimes they really do get overwhelmed.

I am extremely fortunate being married to a man who does not move at my speed, to put it mildly, and it has caused me to slow down and consider the weaknesses of those around me. So, I really do try to keep everyone in the community out from under the pressure and timing demons. But as I mentioned before some of us are in the habit of pushing themselves, so we do not do well when we are asked to slow down. It's almost impossible for me, at times, to slow down, but the Lord has His ways and means to get me to slow down. Satan is well aware that rushing things is the perfect set up for strife and division, so he plans carefully, how to speak to each one to inspire strife. For one it is timing, for another it is preferences, for many it is plain old-fashioned laziness that does not want to do things another way that requires more effort. They are in a hurry to finish other more important projects, so they ignore directions and do it their way. And I have done that to the Lord. God forgive me.

What does that do? It undermines and disrespects leadership, and things are done that never should have been done. When they are confronted about it, they have all kinds of seemingly good reasons and excuses. Well, I had to do this first, well I did not have the materials, well, we already started it a different way and now I have to go back and redo it??? The excuses discourage the one who has to answer to God for the vision. Time is wasted, money is wasted, resources are wasted, all because certain of us want to take short cuts or insert our own ideas on what is best, ignoring the wishes of the person who is responsible to God.

Then there are those who really do not want to be teachable when one asks them to read or listen to different things and the multitude of excuses and also roadblocks come up. So, we have been praying very strongly against roadblock demons. There is a lot of that going on, and it delays things, and it frustrates things. And the Lord wants us to be of one heart and one mind, so we all want to share with each other and be in the same place. And I have been in this place.

May I say that the Lord deliberately did not put us on this planet alone. In Genesis He says, it is not good for man to be alone. In the Letters He says, do not forsake the fellowship of the brethren. God establishes hierarchies to help keep the peace and order, but when you have a soul that does not want to listen to outside sources and is totally interior with God, they can wall themselves off from the gifts that other souls have been sent to offer them. So, it is better in that case to rely on the wisdom God has given us but also to listen and be teachable.

So today, to punctuate minor dysfunction in the community, I woke up to a situation where someone in the community had had seven mini strokes in the space of an hour. Now, I have to preface this by saying that this person had had two weeks of stressful situations, feeling isolated because his communications were not getting out in a timely way or interruptions and important conversations with people off the mountain. And two weeks ago, communication to their hermitage was severely hampered by a broken wire.

Every day when they would text or call, there was either no service or an awfully bad connection making it impossible. So, we discussed that this needed to be done but somehow because of materials and time and things that we were working on it kind of got on the back burner a little bit until this morning when the pressure on this particular person was just so tremendous that we had to do something. So, to add to this the wonderful crew we have on the mountain are extremely conscientious and worked extremely hard to finish their to do list, but Satan's little devils know if you push and send rush rush demons to needle them, these good conscientious souls will overdo it and be dry kindling for a fire. So, on the one hand, those responsible for work feel slighted and unappreciated If I get upset about something, but on the other hand, some things have to be put on a back burner because of a project that is almost complete, but when an emergency arises, we have to drop what we are doing and take care of it. And Lord, I do not want to say anymore, would you please take over?

So, He said, "My Children, love one another as I have loved you. Love is patient, love is kind, love cares for their brother more than for their own selves. Love is yielding to changing demands. Love is flexible and knows how to prioritize the most important issues I set before it. Love does not make excuses or complain.

"My dear ones, I have supplied everything you need to carry out My holy will on this refuge, but remember you are still in training, you have not yet arrived at the desired goal of sanctity, and how you respond to the immediate needs of your brother or sister reflects how much you love them and love Me through them. If a soul has a pressing need that you have been told about, and you put your needs and desires before theirs, you are demonstrating selfishness and a serious lack of brotherly love.

"I want you to hear each other. Not just listen and respond positively, but to really connect with what is troubling that soul and make it a priority to the best of your ability. Some of you in this community are still very selfish. You do not listen with your heart; you listen with your intellect and then prioritize it according to your good pleasure. And I confess, I am one of those people. When you do this, you injure not just the person who is suffering in need, but the whole community, and ultimately yourself and Me. When one suffers all suffer. How then can I use you to minister to the outside world when you have not yet learned to take care of your own.

"In reality you are in a covenant relationship with one another, it is the same as if you were married, so that puts the responsibility on each of you to care for one another as you do for your own self, and never to postpone charity or obedience when necessity presents itself. Lay down your life for your friends dear ones. Lay it down, your desires, your priorities, your favored projects, your pressures to do whatever it is that is pressing on you. Be your brother's keeper.

"When something is lost or goes wrong and you think to yourself, "It is not my problem, I'm busy with my own work." You make no effort to help, you have failed in brotherly love and charity. What would I do? I would stop my especially important work and help that person find the missing object or overcome the problem they have no solution for. I would not callously walk away murmuring to myself, "Well they lost it, they can go find it, it's not my problem."

“When you show disrespect to those who I have charged with your soul, you wound Me and set yourselves up for a fall. When you do not listen with your heart and respond appropriately the way I would, you grieve Me. Some of you are well aware of what you are doing, but you are like the son who said he would go and work his father’s fields but went and worked on what he felt was more urgent, leaving his father’s needs unmet.

“You know that this time of the year, before May first, the enemy is cursing and assigning demons overtime, to bring about division and downfall to please Satan, who categorically hates this community. As Mother Clare has already told you, it was precisely this time 20 years ago when they separated, Ezekiel and Clare separated, and she stayed on the mountain. I separated them because both had serious defects to overcome before they could live together in peace. And I have called you to live together in peace. After a while, when they had both seen themselves more clearly and repented, I brought them back together again. It is not My desire to separate any of you from the community, but I will do it if it is necessary, to bring you all into alignment with one another. You have seen Me do this before, with other souls that have left the community. A community cannot exist, cannot continue to exist without this kind of charity and brotherly love. It was the church of Philadelphia that I promised deliverance to. Why? because they were full of love and concern for one another.

And as an aside, In Revelation, Jesus writes critical letters to each of the churches, but to the church of brotherly love, which is what Philadelphia means, He promised deliverance in the Rapture.

Jesus continued. “I want you to understand that you are creating your own pressure and tension. You are taking the bait. You are falling for the same trick every day. And what might that be? It is the “got to get it done” demon that is programing you like a Pavlov dog to jump and run and finish your to do list. And I used to be this way, seriously this way, I was so goal oriented that I neglected my children, and their more important needs. Your mind is so easily moved that from Heaven it looks like you are a hungry dog, and someone just threw you a bone - so off you go. And I am not exaggerating. It is simply a trained response from your worldly life that automatically jumps and runs. Your moves are not deliberated with the Holy Spirit, they are trained by your patterns of life. Now is the time to change that. I am offering you the grace.

“No one is standing over you like a slave driver and cracking the whip. Yes, there will be changes from moment to moment in the schedule from what you planned to do, and yes that is trying, but I am training you in Godly obedience, detachment from your own agenda, self-control, and flexibility, Godly flexibility. Those changes I have either created for your maturity or allowed to exercise you in Holy Obedience and detachment from your own ways. If you continue to be stubborn and have your own way, and fly in the face of those who labor for your soul, you are retarding your spiritual growth. Even I must be ready when the Father tells me to go and get My Bride, even I have to be ready to stop what I am doing and obey Him. Should you be any different?

“Understanding that much of what has been revealed today has been retarding your growth and standing in the way of greater blessings and causing strife in your lives for many years, so please take My message to heart and understand Mother has been specifically chosen to help in the process of your sanctity. When you dismiss her requests as being less important than your own reasonings, you dismiss Me, NOT her. And what is at the root of that? Arrogance and Pride.

“I am extending the scepter of humility to you now as you hear these words, I am giving you a grace. Please repent of your former ways and receive this grace. Those whom the Lord loves He chastises, only because He loves them dearly. I indeed love you dearly, more than your earthly mind has the capacity to comprehend. Love Me too, as well.”

Rapture Update & My Call to The Unwanted

April 22nd, 2021

May the Courage and strength of the Lord sustain you dear Heart Dwellers. Amen

God is with us and He is doing amazing things in the background of our country. Many of the negative scenarios that you have seen played out are still under the control of the military and President Trump. And all will come to light at the right time and not a moment sooner. So, let us all hold onto our faith in a man who has proven his life means nothing to him in the face of our country's serious moral decline. He has truly offered his life for the cause of this country.

I want to talk with you about what the Lord has been showing us recently. I was led by the Holy Spirit to a recent post from a man who has done extensive research into the timing of Daniels 70th week. It is called End Times - Daniel UNSEALED! (2021 Great Tribulation) Rock island Books. And it is on YouTube. This particular video talks about 2520, a number arrived at by the person presenting the video, that signifies a justification of timelines for Daniel's 70th week. He makes some remarkably interesting points about the clocks stopping at the 69th week because Israel was out of His will. Remarkably interesting. In any case, I think you will enjoy it, and it came to us really like a confirmation, right on the heels of having prayed about the things that are happening in the world and the eventuality of the Rapture even sooner than we thought. Ezekiel and I listened to this and came with an interesting confirmation. By this man's calculations, the Rapture could happen in the season of this summer or fall, 2021. This coincides with dreams, visions, and Scripture readings that have been falling into our laps consistently every day. We are, for the second time, since 2016, preparing for the Rapture again. I just wanted to tell you, and there is a very solid chance the Rapture will happen within months.

You who have been with us for a while know that we do not normally talk about the Rapture happening. This is a very new occurrence for us since 2016 when the Lord extended the time. In additions, events are lining up. Mother Elisabeth's mother is in her last days, and she has left to go see her mother before she passes. Interestingly, her mother, a prophetic and very holy woman, has been told by the Lord that the Rapture will happen within months after her passing and going to be with the Lord in Heaven. She is not expected to live past this month. In addition to this, Mother Elisabeth had a dream which we posted where she was living in an underground community, and there was dialogue about the Rapture between her and a brother and it was determined that the Rapture had already happened about three and a half years previously, which would have put it in the Fall of 2021 or Spring of 2022.

And dear ones, I cannot tell you how many people in the community here continue to get Rapture warnings daily, both in dreams and in random readings for the LORD'S supper. A day does not go by where there are no Rapture scriptures, they just keep popping up along with other signs and confirmations. I am telling you all of this because the signs and confirmations are profoundly serious, and I have never felt the Lord more urgently warning us. So please be prepared, keep the oil burning in your lamps. Give to the poor, show mercy, forgive, repent of your sins every day. Go to confession if you can, or you can call a brother presbyter, who has been hearing confessions over Skype, and he will work with you and give you an absolution, if it is the Lord's will. I will put his number in the description box below this video. But stay clean dear ones, stay clean.

Get your house in order, your goodbye letters, and other items to help those left behind. And here I want to mention that the Refuge is not a place to hide. We are here to be a Refuge for the Lord, a place where He can come and rest His weary heart and receive consolation from His Bride. Just so you understand, for those who are interested, this is a place where people come to pray, serve, and allow the Lord to bring them up and out of tenaciously bad habits, and also to be equipped and prepared for the incredibly special ministry God created them to do. One thing we are excessively big on, is helping souls to find what it is in their lives that they are called to do, as well as living a life of intercession, fasting and prayer.

This is not an end times hideout community, although who knows what the Lord will do in the not-too-distant future. But right now, we have three openings for those who would like to come and serve, as well as discover their own particular mission and path in life. Lord, do you have something to add?

Jesus began, "I have brought the souls here to mature them in the faith and garland them about with special desperately needed skills. I am restoring My first century church to her fully equipped dignity and ability. Much has been stripped out of My Body by those who began independent churches. Much good teaching has come forth from those I have chosen to lead, but because of the rancor of the devil, his jealousy and hatred, he has managed to remove many helps I instituted for the early church to have power over the enemy and to inspire evangelism and give strength to the weary.

"The things you will learn here are equipping tools that have been withheld from all but the college graduates. These gifts such as ordination and learning to employ the sacraments I left for My People, are very necessary training to be fully equipped to evangelize the world. I am choosing the foolish looking ones to confound those who believe themselves to be highly educated, incredibly wise, and qualified.

"I am deliberately picking the little ones here because their hearts are for Me. When I say little, I do not mean in stature, but well equipped in humility and obedience, stemming from a pure heart to love and serve Me and go wherever I send them and do whatever I tell them. I am doing something new in the church, something very much like what St. Francis of Assisi did. It is not the worldly wise I am choosing, but those who have rejected the world, its laurels, and perks, to be completely devoted to Me.

“Others look down upon these, but they are My faithful Generals and end times soldiers. You recall the story Rick Joyner told when he ridiculed a homeless brother for standing on a corner proclaiming the Gospel. When I took him to Heaven, he saw that very man sitting on a throne and commanding angels and saints to go and do his bidding. When Rick saw him, he became very convicted for having judged the man because of his holy zeal. As it turns out the man died while laying on another street brother who was freezing to death in order to keep him warm. In saving that man’s life, he gave up his own.

“These are My great ones, Clare. These are the ones the world is not worthy of, and yet they look worthless to those I cannot use because of their pride. I am doing this all over the world, raising up those who the world does not esteem. They are so little, so empty, and so in love with Me that I can do wonders through them. They have made the conscious choice to leave the world and be despised for the Love of their Savior.

“I am rebuilding My Church from the roots up, going back to the first century before the pomp and circumstance of Rome which injected the values of the world into what was My pure Holy Body. So, I call to all of you who have been rejected by the establishment, but know they are called by Me. You are the ones I want to anoint and appoint, you who have not made the grade by the world’s standards but are not concerned because all you want is what I want. So, yes, this is an invitation of sorts, but at the very least, this is a look into My value system and what I cherish in a soul.

“Do not ever feel inferior because you do not have a degree. The degree I am looking for is the temperature of your heart, keep that fire alive and I will use you in marvelous ways, you never dreamt of. I bless you all who have been afraid to come forward, seeing yourselves as vastly inferior. No longer say that about yourself, I am blessing you to come to Me empty, hungry and on fire to do My will.

“There is an equipping coming right now that will be given to the lowliest of men and women. It will be Me that shines through them and they themselves will not covet having a cluster of their own. I bless you with this holy fire now as you listen. Receive it, go out to the highways and byways, and spread this to those who have given up on life and on serving Me. Rekindle the dreams they once had of serving Me. Teach them the ways of simplicity and brotherly love. Heal and anoint them. Restore confidence in Me and lift them from their dungeons of rejection and failure. I do not reject them, My arms are open to embrace, to heal and to equip them.”

I Am So Pleased With You

April 23rd, 2021

May the peace and clarity of being in a right relationship with Jesus bring you joy dear Family.

Jesus began speaking to me this morning, before I even had a chance to catch my breath, really. He said, "I wanted everyone in the community to know how pleased I am with them. They really listened and applied the teaching I gave them for this last week. (Which was, I Am, My Brother's Keeper And I think that just went up yesterday). He continued, "My precious ones, I live inside of you and am a part of all your thoughts and doings. I see how you correct yourselves and how you really try to reform your lives. I want you to know that truly I am with you, dispensing graces each time you apply effort to do what is right in spite of your own personal preferences.

"Clare, I see how you try to offer your appetite to Me and choose the lesser food rather than excusing yourself to self-indulge when you are feeling stress. I am happy with these efforts beloved and you are going to see results in your spiritual life. Mothers are famous for giving their babies the breast when they cry, however as children grow older, they become accustomed to treats when they have gone through difficult situations. Perhaps you remember as a child, you got a sucker from the doctor after the shot? This conditions you to reach for comfort in food as you get older. Most of you were raised this way and have that automatic built-in response. Yet there were some mothers who handled it differently.

"In any case, all of you are showing true improvement in your motives and actions and I am so incredibly happy with you. Please do not let this progress slip from your mind, press in and keep it, knowing that as you deprive yourselves of indulging your self will with physical consolations, you are growing spiritually.

"I am looking out for you, day after day, arranging your responses ahead of time, according to grace. It is good for all of you to envision My mind being received and melded into your own when you place the helmet of salvation upon your heads. Not only is this a reminder that I have given My mind to all who ask for it, it is truly taking place in the realm of faith according to your own faith in the vision when you don your helmet.

"This helmet is very very real and is infused with copious graces, more than I can ever possibly reveal to you. It is yours for the asking as long as you ask in faith. Satan's number one job when you awake in the morning is to turn your day dark and sour, so that you will not be able to function in the Spirit as I have called you to. He wants to weaken you immediately. When you take this helmet in faith, I change the enemy's plans and protect, nourish, and inspire your mind and heart.

"You cannot separate your mind and your heart, they work together, and motivation, inspiration and even perseverance are closely tied to the clarity of this heart - mind connection. This is one reason why I am continually prompting you to do away with worldly thoughts, worldly news, it cleanses you of the chaff so the seeds can bear fruit. Please do not allow this progress to slip away from you. When you have taken thoughts captive and made them your own by putting them into action repeatedly, you form new and holy habits that remove you further and further away from your past of carnality and selfishness.

Of course, the enemy is very frustrated to see that you have made progress and he will lie in wait for you to grow weak and then tempt you to back slide. Hold to the good and holy ways My chosen ones. Perfect yourselves now that your wedding gowns may be spotless and wrinkle free, ready for that great day which, by the way, is swiftly approaching.

"I want to remind you that I still love to dance with you. When you try to do too much in the world, our relationship suffers. There is a powerful undercurrent of "getting it done" that is constantly being projected onto you. I call it the rush rush demon. He continued, "You do well to ignore it and give yourself over to our special time together. Truly I miss dancing with you...after all we must rehearse for the great day.

"I know that you live under a cloud of expectation and conflicts about what tomorrow will bring. But I want you to know that each day has its own challenges and things to accomplish, and all that I ask of you is that you are faithful in the little things as well as the great, each day. Live according to what I have set before you. Do not allow the pending to do list or do do list of things to hound you and goad you into action. No Groom wants his bride to be thinking about cleaning the closets when they are out on the town dancing and romancing. But this is the effect of taking the things of the world more seriously than those of the spirit. So please do all in your power to begin to rebuke those lists when the enemy tries to overshadow your thinking with them. Truly this IS a device of the evil ones to rob us of our time together and cause you continuing anxiety.

"But all in all, I am incredibly pleased with your efforts to set aside your personal agendas and care for your brother. Selfishness is beginning to decrease brotherly love increase. How pleased I am with you!! Now I would ask you to come dance with Me and be of one heart and one mind with Me, undivided by the contamination of the world. I will help you in that endeavor. Besides, would not you rather be with me than that dirty old axel you have to repair? The enemy is an opportunist, kick those thoughts out of your mind the way you would take control over a snake trying to enter your house. For truly, these thoughts that are presented to you as urgent and pressing are merely poisonous snakes targeting you with their venom. They are sent from Satan to derail your relationship with Me and one another. I have given you all authority to deal with them. Use it.

"I bless you now My precious Bride, with clarity of mind, humility perseverance, in putting the world outside of the holy space we share together. My heart swells with pride when I see you taking My instructions to heart. Truly, it is not the lowly instrument that delivers them that matters, it is the content I have given her for you, that matters. Thank you for taking it to heart, for truly I have revealed My will for you, to her.

My Rebellious Attitude

May the Lord bring joy and wonder into your lives as we enter this spring season, and continue to give us strength and patience. Amen

This past week Ezekiel had a bout with pain that was off all the charts. He knew he was suffering for something very, very important as his pain became his prayer. But when he suffers, I too suffer, it brings me to my knees emotionally. Jesus had given me warnings that this was coming. "When situations are painful beyond your means, then look to My suffering on the cross for your strength." I had gotten that a couple of times, so I should have been prepared, but how does one prepare for such agony?

Lord, I am sorry. I was angry with you for allowing Ezekiel to suffer the way he did. And when I realized that my indiscretion which was very small to the human mind, actually was part of the open door that suffering entered through, I was even more upset. But I knew the answer. It wasn't just the Bible markers; it was a yielding to the suggestions of avarice.

Yes, Beloved family, I still struggle Avarice. Like a little child that didn't get her cookie, I pitched a fit and dropped my circumcised eating to indulge in desserts. I believe the naughty little girl inside of me was saying, "Well, since I had to suffer so much, I deserve a reward." I even stooped to the lowest place by asking one of our sisters to make it for me. Guilty, guilty, guilty. And of course, along with that came a withdrawal from the Lord. Thus, no messages for you precious family. I am so very sorry, please forgive me.

When I awoke this morning, all I wanted to do was get right with Jesus. I missed Him and I felt very badly that I had hurt Him by my attitude towards Him. He gave me a reading from the Rhema book last night that hit conviction on the head:

Lukewarm...Little Foxes Spoil the Vine, January 27, 2016

I've been feeling something wasn't quite right between He and I, in spite of the beautiful graces that He's been giving me in prayer. I've been taking little liberties here and there for my flesh, which I shouldn't be doing. And it definitely leads to Luke warmness in my own heart to some degree. So, I'm going to share that with you, because this is probably one of the most important things you can keep an eye on in ourselves.

"It's the little foxes that spoil the vine, My Love." Jesus began. "The little things you do that you know you shouldn't do. They are proofs of self-love and Luke warmness towards Me."

Yes, Lord, I am very convicted. I thought just a little exception for the flesh here and a little there, 'no big deal.'

He continued, "Wrong. VERY big deal. I see where Satan gets in slowly so you don't notice you are going off track. After all, you're not going into debt or buying a corvette...it's just a chocolate bar for Pete's sake.

He continued, "You know how it feels when you nick your finger and it bleeds. It takes a few days to heal, especially if it's on a knuckle. In the meantime, it hurts. It makes your whole hand hurt. Even though it's not life threatening, it mars your body's performance. And it's a distraction.

"It is the same way in relationships. Little indifferences hurt. When they accumulate, they do damage, and that damage has to be repaired. You've been given so many graces, Clare. There really is no excuse for you taking liberties that injure our relationship. Although you do have a very real enemy egging you on into these things, still you can say, 'NO!' when these little indiscretions are proposed to you.

"It's not like you're under a strong physical or chemical compulsion. It's more like 'I want that.' You could deny yourself as a sign of your love for Me. I honor each time you do that. So, you see indifference leads to Luke warmness...and you have it in your power not to allow that."

So, Lord - how do I get out of this?"

"Deny yourself more, go deeper. Eventually you'll have a breakthrough and a restoration of My Sweet presence. Show Me that you care, Beloved. I know you've made serious life choices to honor Me. But understand: it is the little foxes that spoil even the finest of vines. The higher you go, the longer down the fall, the more damage that is done to yourself, to Me and to others."

I replied, "Stupid flesh, it seems like I am forever fighting it."

"When you make the decision to renounce yourself, in total, then the walk will be easier. It's the little allowances you make for the flesh that are not strong compulsions, that are so damaging. For the compulsions, I give grace as well. I understand when your body needs something like chocolate. I give you slack at those times, because you are simply too weak.

"How marvelous it would be if you weren't that weak. But I use it to help with humility. Now, I know how badly you feel, but you are not out of the woods yet. Not until you totally renounce yourself. And I might add, even when you've done that, you can still fall.

"Much is tied up in humility, My Love. You need to practice mindful humility. In other words, take every thought captive, lift up others deliberately and abase yourself. Then abstinence will become easier. The lowlier you become, the more protection and grace I will impart to you."

Wow, that bears repeating, "The lowlier you become, the more protection and grace I will impart to you." Yes, I have known that pride causes the Lord to lower His protection, and opens us to a fall.

"You have been catching yourself in pride lately. That's always a sign that a downgrade is on the way, so to speak. Littleness, littleness, littleness. The littler the better. You should have experienced My mother's littleness. It's not like anything known on Earth, it is so far from what you call humility now. If anyone could have been any tinier in My eyes, I would have chosen them.

"It was truly her knowledge of the Father that caused her to abase herself. She saw herself much as I see her. Very, very, very little, insignificant and void of every merit. She attributed every good thing to the Father and kept nothing for herself. She saw all others as more virtuous than herself and not for one moment did she dare to look up and pass judgement. She was steeped in charity and compassion.

"All of you, My Brides, could have learned from her example. But you have My example of continual brokenness, humility, charity and understanding. Although I could have passed judgment on the harlot, I chose not to. You see? That's the Father's job. Go now, My love, and get some rest. We will begin anew tomorrow." That was the entire message.

Returning to the subject at hand, the way I rebelled after seeing Ezekiel in so much pain, I actually harbored resentment in my heart that God allowed him to suffer that way. And I gave myself permission to raise a protest by eating favorite foods. When someone mentioned Psalm 78 it says, "Their hearts were not constant toward him; they were not faithful to his covenant, 38 But God being compassionate forgave their sin; he did not utterly destroy them. Time and again he turned back his anger, unwilling to unleash all his rage. 39 He remembered that they were flesh, a breath that passes on and does not return."

I am so very grateful for His mercy, but I don't want to take Him for granted. In fact, just a couple of days ago, He brought up the topic of the Fear of God. And I realized, I have gotten so close to Him that I am very much in danger of presumption. And when the pain was off the charts for Ezekiel, I was reminded of how little and insignificant I truly am. How fearful and wonderful is our Lord, but He desires that we should come to Him as little children and not be frightened. Jesus, please speak to Your little girl.

This Rhema card came up just now, "Take courage, the master is calling you."

Yes Beloved, I am calling to you. You have no idea how much I miss you when you are upset with Me. I long to be reconciled dear one. I long to hear your trusting voice speaking sweet words to Me and even asking difficult questions. Thank you for forgiving Me. I also forgive you My dear one. Let there never be any rancor or obstacle between us, I too live for the joy of communing with My creatures, even the littlest ones who misunderstand My good intentions. I know My Beloved ones that you do not always understand the necessity of suffering, and this will most probably remain partially a mystery to you until you see the fruit in Heaven. Never the less, I too have an abhorrence of pain, did I not say, "Father if it is possible, allow this cup to pass by Me, yet not My will but Yours be done."

I saw the pain coming and I too despised it. However, I knew the joy that would follow in the heels of it, namely, you with Me through all eternity, never to be parted again.

When these things approach you Beloved, they come with a grace for you to endure it without crumbling as well as many graces going out to other souls who would have otherwise been lost to us in Eternity.

When you wrap your mind around this and accept it in humble adoration of My Father's will, you bring Me great consolation and glory. Someday you will see the graces flowing out from your wounds, that is the sufferings of your flesh and heart. Pain is indeed a very great sacrifice, and I do not take that sacrifice lightly, I am forever indebted to you for cooperating with My plan for mankind.

I bless you now in your hearing ears with the graces of forbearance as each of you lovingly lifts your own very special cross to your shoulders. Carry it with Me, accompany Me, My Bride in this lonely journey to bring the lost into My Kingdom.
